

Timely Warning

January 15, 2010

Information provided by the Ottawa County Sheriff's Department

Jesse Allen Duke

Currently residing at 328 C Northeast, Miami, OK

As a Juvenile, Mr. Duke broke into SEVERAL houses in Craig County, OK for the sole purpose of stealing women's panties.

He was then arrested at Tulsa University wearing a black cap that said "Sheriff" on it. He stole several keys to the women's dorms and was stealing items from the women's dormitories as well as peeping tom activities. He was convicted of Knowingly Concealing Stolen Property, so he is not required to register as a Sex Offender.

A Psychosexual Evaluation was done and it shows that Mr. Duke is becoming more and more bold in his actions and is in the process of working up to an actual rape of a woman.

NEO Timely Warning Statement

In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus, that, in the judgment of the NEO Chief of Police, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a campus wide "timely warning" will be issued. The warning will be issued through the NEO e-mail system to students, faculty, staff and the NEO Campus CODE RED System.

Depending on the particular circumstances of the crime, especially in all situations that could pose an immediate threat to the community and individuals, the Campus Police may also post a notice on the www.neo.edu website's homepage providing the college community with more immediate notification. In such an instance, a copy of the notice is posted in each residence hall, at the front door of each on-campus dormitory. The NEO home page will post the Timely Warning immediately accessible via computer by all faculty, staff and students. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to the NEO Campus Police office, by phone or in person at the front desk. The NEO Campus Police Department's phone number is 918-540-6373 or to contact an officer on the 24 hour cell phone at 918-533-1243. Business hours are Monday through Friday, 8 am to 4:30 pm. The NEO Campus Police Department is in the Lower Level of the Library Administration Building 2 blocks north of Central on I St. N.E. Miami, OK.
