Education is for life and not for school, for use and not ornament alone, for better and higher living and not for display. It requires earnest and conscientious effort on the part of students and faculty. It elevates by training and refining; it is the advance guard of civilization.

We are doing our best as an institution to assist in this great work. It is our aim to promote education and the ideals of a higher and better life. We appreciate the co-operation and effort of faculty and students.

We would also greet and acknowledge the encouragement and help of friends who have at all times given us their loyalty and support. We hope to so conduct our school as to merit the well wishes and commendations of the community and of our State.

M. R. FLOYD, President.
The junior college is now recognized as a definite integral part of the American plan of public education. When the Miami school was established there were few of its kind anywhere throughout the land. Now the country is covered with thousands of state and public school institutions doing the first two years of college work. N. E. O. J. C. may therefore be regarded as a pioneer in this field. We are proud to say that the school has served the State and more especially its local community efficiently and well during its brief career.

With membership in full standing in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and library and laboratory facilities superior to most similar institutions there is every reason to believe that this school will render the citizens of Northeast Oklahoma a service which, with the coming years, will be of distinct value in the molding of our state and national life.

ATHLETICS
Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College is indeed fortunate in having Floyd "Spike" Murphy, four year letter man on the Tulsa University Varsity squad, as head coach of Jayseer athletics. The enviable record made this year is due principally to his skill, and untiring efforts to develop teams that would creditably represent the college at all times.

FOOTBALL

Future sport chroniclers delving back into the history of Jayseer football teams will find that the record established by the 1928 gridiron warriors surpassed all previous years. Although beaten, by a narrow margin, by the Arkansas University freshman squad and the Kansas State Teachers College reserve eleven, the Blue and Gold vanquished every Junior College foe of the year. Fans and school officials alike have agreed that the title “all-victorious”, should be applied, for the team was unbeaten in its class.

The driving pigskin battalion turned out by Coach Floyd (Spike) Murphy was built around only a few letter men of the previous year and an abundance of new and willing material from high schools of the surrounding district. Using the older and experienced sophomores as pivot men the husky mentor from Tulsa University molded a squad well balanced as to offense and defense and succeeded in attaining the most successful year for the N. E. O. J. C. in regard to punts, passes, yards and touchdowns.

Plenty of hard drill was the first number on the Murphy program for the Jayseer squad in September and the second act in which the team took part consisted of signals and plays. Spiking, tackling, blocking and running with the ball were the passports to the first string positions, and the whole squad entered into the competition with a determination which produced results.

The Ozark Wesleyan Lions at Carthage, Mo., ancient rivals of the local gridmen, were overcome 6 to 0 in an epic battle that opened the season for the Jayseer team, and incidentally provided the most thrills and hardest opposition of any team the Murphymen defeated. The victory on the Missourians’ own field marked the second time in the history of athletic relations between the two schools that the Lions took the short end of the score. In 1925, Paul Williams’ squad turned back the Wesleyans 6 to 0 on the local gridiron.

The lone score for the Blue and Gold came in the third period after the two elevens had see-sawed across the field in a deadlock for the first half of the contest. Strive as they did, the Lion crew could not duplicate the Jayseer touchdown, and when the smoke of battle had cleared, the pride of Northeastern Oklahoma had tallied the first of a long string of victories.

The first home game of the season of '28 went to the Kansas State Teachers College reserves of Pittsburg, 12 to 6, after a struggle which left the outcome a matter of doubt until the last second of play. Another score would have tied the count and possibly won the game if the try for extra point was successful, and the Jayseer engine fought to hang a defeat on the Kansans.

The second Pittsburg tally came late in the fourth quarter after a long pass from the center of the field to the goal line. The Junior College touchdown was scored in the second quarter on off-tackle plays.

Still smarting from their hair-breadth defeat at the hands of the teacher reserves Murphy's squad found the Coffeyville Junior College team a much different task the next week and literally tore the opposing line to shreds with hard-hitting plunges after pulling the defense away with a series of long passes, many of which were successful. The final score was 45 to 0, the largest the Jayseers amassed during the entire year, and a big boost toward the 145 point season total the Junior College scored while holding its opponents to 49 counters.

Southwest Baptist College at Bolivar fared little better than Coffeyville when the Jayseers invaded that domain for the fourth game of the year and the final whistle saw the Miami crew leading 27 to 0. Notwithstanding the four touchdowns, however, the Missouri squad was stubborn and fought to the last ditch, futilely, against the mid-season onslaught of the Oklahomans.

One more reverse was to be tallied against the Blue and Gold clad gridiron army, however, before the curtain came down on the football season, and that reverse was destined to be handed out by the Arkansas Razorbacks freshmen, a team picked from a squad of more than 100 aspirants to the A. U. football machine. Holding the Pigs to 25 points the Miami crew drew the applause of football critics both here and abroad for that was the smallest score by which the "frosh" had ever beaten the Junior College, and they had a remarkably strong team.

"Beat Bacone" was a war cry that rang out in the Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College in the days of its infancy, and the same war cry pealed forth during the season of 28 as the Jayseers outplayed the Indians for their third straight victory and a 27 to 7 triumph. The contest also placed the Jayseers well up among the claimants for the state Junior College title as Bacone led the conference, to which the local school does not belong.

Another championship could easily have been claimed after the following week when the Parsons Junior College, unbeaten in the Kansas Junior College league, fell before the local gridsters 33 to 6 in a game that never was in doubt as to the outcome. It was the first time the teams of the two schools had ever clashed, although they have often played other schools in common. The Parsons fray closed the football season, all-victorious in the Junior College class, and with three times the score of their opponents.

Eight of the sixteen letter men of '28 will leave the Northeastern Junior College by graduation before the season of '29, and eight of them have promised to return in an effort to build another great team. "Spike" Murphy already has his eyes turned toward promising high school stars and another fine eleven.

The men who will never wear a Blue and Gold uniform again are Captain Em Price, Adrian Dunlap, Pete McCullough, Lyle Cunningham, Walter Underwood, Franz Bachmann, Wray Paine and James Tedrow.

The trips which the football men and their supporters have made this past year have been more than just journeys, they have been the source of some of the best yarns of the year. Unfortunately most of them were jealously kept within the team but a few of them have leaked out.

The Kappas from Arkansas must have thought something was funny when the three Beau Brummmels from Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College told their names—Paine, Angel and Sapp. But then the four records purchased for the price of a single "coke" probably soothed them. "Spike" evidently wasn't so soothing at eleven o'clock, or so the angelic member of the three musketeers thought.

Of course, Parsons could have won had they had their first team. Maybe their team didn't have the nice T-bone steak and tea that our boys enjoyed, although we understand that "Spike" prefers apple pie.

Those three hours spent on the bus enroute to Carthage netted one member of the Jayseers seven dollars. Clabaugh rather profited from Sapp at Bolivar, while the rest of the team enjoyed a T-bone steak.

Charles Chestnut is a dangerous man after being knocked out, else why his "Let's get Pittsburg!" all through the Bolivar game? The T-bone steak must have revived him.

There is a thick veil over the Springfield trip, seemingly the thicker the better! Though they certainly must have had a lark for according to the team it was the trip of the year.
BASKETBALL

Re-entering the basketball lists after a lay-off of several years the Northeastern Oklahoma Junior college squad under the tutelage of Coach Floyd (Spike) Murphy completed a 10-game season with six victories and four defeats in spite of the fact that it was necessary to use the Miami high school court for practice at odd intervals and that a late start was made necessary by the large number of teams using the court.

Opening the season here with the Wyandotte Merchants, Murphy's men appeared to be on the winning end but a late rally put the Wyandotte crew over with a long basket that won the game 18 to 16. Training hard, the Jayseer squad was far from being downed, however, and came back in the following game to trounce the ancient foe of all good Jayseers, Oklahoma Military Academy, by a 36 to 10 count. The Claremore team was completely outplayed by the Gold and Blue.

BASKETBALL

In the next two contests on the gym' courts the Miami squad fell before the Drury College five at Springfield, Mo., 36 to 18, and bowed to the Wesleyan Lions of Carthage 40 to 31 after a long uphill scrap. The last defeat of the basket looping season was chalked against the Junior Collegians when Fort Scott Junior College won a close decision from the local team 33 to 30 on the Miami court.

Taking their stride on the home stretch the Jayseers defeated in succession the Ozark Wesleyan College by a decisive score, the Joplin DeMolay team in a double encounter, the Carterville semi-pro squad and the Picher All-Stars. Murphy's men also triumphed in the District Independent Tournament and won the right to represent Northeast Oklahoma at the Four-State championship contests in Joplin. Five letter men will return for the next season.

ORGANIZATIONS
Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is to unite in the desire to realize full and creative life, through a growing knowledge of God, to determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people, and in this task to seek to understand Jesus and follow Him.

The organization is equally divided into four groups—social, membership, service, and program. A faculty member sponsors each group. These groups co-operate to make our organization a success. One of the most delightful hours that we all spent together this year was our recognition service for our new members. The deepened shadows and the lighted candles created a wholesome and spiritual atmosphere which deeply impressed us all. The Y. W. C. A. is open to and welcomes any girl in the college who wishes to share our friendship and good times besides doing her share to carry out the purpose in her life and on our campus.
DEBATING CLUB

The Junior College debating team this year was composed of Hutson and Roberts, affirmative; and Staab and Henbest, negative, with Clay DeFord, coach. Both teams defeated Bacone in a double contest, and won honorable mention at Oklahoma University against Tonkawa. The subject for debate was: Resolved, that The Parliamentary Form of Government of England is Preferable to the Presidential Form of the United States.
The Kampus Kat pep organization was organized in the school year 1927-28. Its membership includes about forty girls. These girls represent the most peppy and enthusiastic girls of the college. The purpose of the organization is to create pep in the college and at the athletic games, and to promote clean sportsmanship. All the girls co-operate to realize this purpose. They exhibit their pep by giving drills and yells. The costumes add quite an attraction to the group. The past year they wore white skirts and white jerseys trimmed in blue with big blue cats on the front of the jerseys. The organization is sponsored by two faculty instructors. This organization may be joined by any girl because it is the most representative group of the college.

The members of the 1929 Jay Seer staff have striven to present in this volume a truthful record of the past year at Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College. Our aim has been to build not a bigger but a better annual and we are grateful for the loyal support and willingness to help which our friends and fellow students have shown us. Although hampered, as has been the case for years, by financial difficulties we have done our best to make this annual one that will serve to remind you in a small way of a most happy college year.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Women's Glee Club of Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College under the direction of Miss Beulah Parker has enjoyed the most successful year since organization. Their initial appearance was made in assembly with a toast to Junior College followed by "Dainty Damase"l", Novel Stebbins; and "Because You're You" (from the musical show "Red Mill") by Victor Herbert. Later the club appeared at the Rotary Club's banquet, Miami, Nowata, Fairland, Picher, Grove and Vinita high schools.

May 30—
Commencement Exercises, Dr. Henry E. Bennett, Pres., A. & M. College, Stillwater.

He—"Why are you inviting only married people to our wedding?"
Eva Wilson—"Don't you understand? All the presents will be clear profit."

Erna—"Where'd you get the flivver?"
Bill Poteet—"Oh, it just crawled up on the lawn and died."

Helen LaGrone (at football game)—"Who is this fellow Rah they're always cheering?"
PHI THETA KAPPA MEMBERS

Hazel Campbell is our red-head,
Mary Wynne is our sec.
When you want to giggle turn to
Gladys Lundy, she’s our pep.
Clarence Martin is Mr. Faculty,
Emerson is our football star.
As for work, just ask Jimmy,
He’ll tell you Mr. Work’s not far.
Mildred Hawthorne’s not discouragement,
Only when she has to be.
As for Student Honor? No sir!
I’m quite sure it can’t be me.
Eva Hollis was “Miss” Goodtime,
But she’s “Mrs.” Goodtime now.
Virginia is our efficient president
And oh, boy! How!
Lola Records was unable
To take part in our play,
But she is Phi Theta Kappa
At all times, in every way.
Miss Scholarship is Juanita
And my how she does work!
But a member of Phi Theta
Hasn’t ever been known to shirk.
Then there’s our two beloved sponsors—
Mr. Whitney and Miss Vann,
For official car of Phi Theta Kappa
We use Mr. Whitney’s sedan.
Miss Vann’s a shark at washing dishes
She takes to water just like fishes!
But it takes Mr. Floyd to crack a joke
At others his fun he likes to poke.
Now Phi Theta Kappa members don’t be offended
If your name appears in this,
For my nonsense now is ended
And I beg you to dismiss—
Just “me”
ALTA V. ROWLEY.

Mr. Steed—“Pete, what are you rubbering at?”
Pete—“I’m stretching my imagination.”

“Yes”, said Mr. Steed, “It was funny enough to make a donkey laugh.
I laughed till I cried.”

Neva Lee—“And they are keeping their engagement a secret?”
Ardis Maurine—“Well, that’s what they’re telling everybody.”

Mr. Whitney—“Any questions now?”
Charles—“Yes, what course is this?”

Lucille—“Isn’t Ray graceful though? I like to watch him. He’s so light on his feet.”
Murray—“Just a case of both ends balancing.”
TRAGEDY IN ROOM 27

Young Lochinvar came into class
His seat he then got in it,
Immediately he arose again
And said, "I'll be back in a minute".

His teacher said, "Where are you going?"
Her name was "Two Gun Moore".
Both guns leaped up to meet her hands,
But he had slammed the door.

Then out upon the tennis courts
He wends his weary way,
And finding young Fritz Bachmann there,
He passed the time of day.

Then back into the classroom
He hied him with much haste,
His head hung low upon his chest,
His spirit was much chaste.

The teacher eyed him balefully,
This was a bad omen,
And jerking pistols from her belt
She aimed at his abdomen.

"Oh! spare me teacher, darling,
I did it but in fun."
The teacher merely glared at him
And leveled out her gun.

The teacher thought and thought and thought,
The atmosphere grew tenser,
And with a look that bode no good
She put up the lead dispenser.

"I won't waste bullets on you,
You're just a silly nut!"
So quickly drawing out her knife
She gave him a double cut!

—Wray Paine.

Miss Moore—"If you're going to be indiscreet, be discreet about it."
Emerson—"What a dirty look he gave me."
Arthur—"Gave you nothing; you've always had that dirty look."
Virginia—"Let's go on a hiking trip."
Jenny—"No, motoring makes me sick."
Alma Lee—"Let's play bridge for a tenth of a cent."
Mary—"Don't be foolish, they aren't making coins that small."
Pete—"Where do you work?"
Hap—"In a mint factory."
Pete—"Why aren't you working now?"
Hap—"We're making the holes today."
SOLILOQUY

Miss Moore was once a friend of mine, a friend who could be trusted; But now she has done wrong by me, and so the friendship's busted. One day I asked a favor; she granted it sure thing; So I ran out to tennis play, until the bell should ring. The bell rang out, I heard it not, I was too interested; And I thought Miss Moore's friendship could fearlessly be trusted. The game then ended, I returned, all blithe and unsuspecting; Miss Moore was on the warpath though, and she was scalp-collecting. "You have sinned, I will uphold the law unto the letter", Quoth this new, unrelenting Henrietta. I left the room and fled out doors, and fell upon the lawn; My faith in all humanity, and trust in humans gone. And oft when on my couch I lie, in vacant and in pensive mood; I see those two cuts before my eye, I sure need solitude. —Wray Paine.

A FRESHMAN'S SOLILOQUY

"I've been bawled out, Balled up, held up, Held down, Bull- Dozed, black-jacked, Walked on, cheated, Squeezed and mooched, I've been stuck for War tax, annual tax, Class tax, carpet tax, and syntax. I've worked Like thunder. Lost All I had and things I didn't have; and Because I won't spend, Or lend, all of the Little I can beg, Borrow or steal, I've Been talked to, talked About, lied to, lied About, held up, hung, Robbed, and nearly Ruined; and the only Reason I'm sticking around Now is to see what the Thunder will happen next.

Carl—"Is Clarence a good detective?"
Ernest—"He's the kind that would hang his coat on the door knob and try to look through the keyhole."
Mr. Steed—"Does this question puzzle you?"
Murray—"Not a bit, it's the answer that has got my goat."
WE WONDER

If any girl was ever shocked at Wray Paine?
Who owns the Junior College; Floyd or Riddle?
If Marion likes pledge court?
Why is the Y. W. C. A.?
If Helen Lohmann is as innocent as she looks?
Why the members of the orchestra shut their eyes when Mr. Younger made their pictures?
How Murray could forget so soon?
If Helen LaGrone actually saw the Claremore game?
Why Ed Foster drops the girls so hard—for particulars see Leland or Beulah F.
Why there is never any alcohol in the Chem. lab.?
Who thinks she is the most popular girl in school; Jenny or Jenny?
Who has the worst time presiding over their faculty meetings—Ted-row or Floyd?
Who sings "I learned about crutches from you"?
Who invented the sentence, "I'm sorry, but it's too late for the annual"?

THE EXPERIENCE OF A FRESHMAN

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. She is, of course, feminine. If she is singular, you become nominative. You walk across to her, changing to the verbal, and then become dative. If she is not objective, you become plural. You walk home together. Her mother is accusative, and you become imperative. Her brother is an indefinite article. You walk in and sit down. You talk of the future and she changes the subject. The subject, of course, is understood. You kiss her and she becomes objective. Her father becomes present and you become passive.

FINIS.

Mr. DeFord—"Son, your mother has told me you have been misbehaving. I shall have to punish you tonight."
Clay Jr.—"Not tonight, father, I shall be too busy with my lessons, but speak to me again tomorrow regarding an appointment."
Pete—"Why did you stop singing in the choir?"
Wray Paine—"Because one day I didn't sing and someone asked if the organ had been fixed."
Prof. Murphy—"A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer."
Fern Branstetter—"No wonder so many of us flunk our exams."
Hap Dunlap says a track suit is not a legal battle between two railroads.
"What is the matter with Clarence?"
"Oh, he just got a shine and then remembered that they were his roommate's shoes."
Joe—"You know, Bill, for two cents I'd throw this penny away."
OUR OWN WHO'S WHO

Virginia Jones—A good sport.
Emerson Price—The Student Prince.
Beulah Foster—Everybody's Pet.
Helen LaGrone—Love 'em and Leave 'em.
Wray Paine—Our hottest necker.
Lucile and Murray—Mr. and Mrs.
Marian Cameron—Her opinions!

Little Alma tells us she skates quite well,
But what she skates on she'll never tell.
It isn't her feet, and it isn't her head—
Probably some things are better left unsaid.
—Whirlwind.

Eva has come hither eyes
The kind that make you faint,
But when you ask her for a date
Be where her husband ain't.
—Virginia Reel.

Violets are green,
   Roses are pink,
Immediately after
   The thirteenth drink.

I danced her by the stag line,
   I did, I did, I did.
We danced right by the stag line,
   No kid, no kid, no kid.
I saw the fellows glancing,
   Oh why, Oh why, Oh why,
Did they not stop our dancing,
   The chaperone and I.
—Whirlwind.

TO W. P.—
Professor McDuff
   Is a guy I hate,
He gives a cut
   For being late.

Charles C.—"Well, I suppose I must marry Isabelle to satisfy her."
Wayne—"Didn't know she wanted to get married."
Charles—"She said she wouldn't marry until she found a perfect man."
Burke—"Yes, Dad, I'm a college graduate now. Watch me go out and set this little old world of ours on fire."
Mr. Tuthill—"I suppose you expect me to give you the matches?"
Carl—"Walt's a good kid, isn't he?"
Clarence—"Yes, if he had some brains he'd be a smart boy, if he knew how to use them."
Alfred—"Noises in my head keep me awake."
Orville—"That's impossible."
Alfred—"Why so?"
Orville—"Because, you can't transmit sound through a vacuum."
Ray—"They say Murray is wandering in his mind."
Jimmie—"That's all right. He won't go far."
Roommate—"I wish you wouldn't whistle when you're studying."
Second Roommate—"I wasn't studying, I was whistling."
Mary Lou—"I'll be yours on one condition."
Clifford—"Easy! I entered college on six."
Lucille—"Say, it's twelve o'clock, do you think you can stay here all night?"
Murray—"Well, I'll have to telephone mother first."

This space was reserved for a crack about a Certain Organization. We have decided not to make this crack about this Certain Organization, because we feel that this Certain Organization has ceased to be a campus joke and has become a campus problem.

Prof. DeFord—"This exam will be conducted on the Honor System. Please take seats three apart and in alternate rows."

Dean Drake (to Chemistry Class)—"What is the origin of slow motion?"
Sweet Sigma—"An L. D. B. reaching for the pay-check at Hadleys."
