Parents Stars for a Day

September 18, 1985, a bright warm fall Saturday, was the day we chose to entertain our parent and siblings on our creatively decorated campus. The day’s festivities began with punch and cookies served during registration in the Student Union and a special slide show of the NEO campus and continuous tours by the Inter-Dorm Council of NEO dormitories, cafeteria, and classrooms. At the conclusion of a successful day, NEO topped Tyler with a brilliant performance on the home field to the cheers of parents and friends.

Vann Hall won first place in the dorm decorating contest with its theme, "A Past Spirit, A Present Pride."

Tom Esmond and his parents enjoyed the campus activities.

Andy Littladeve and his parents took advantage of the warm weather and took a walk around campus.
Dyer Hall residents exhibit the charming reputation for which they are well known.

Russell Hall residents are just a little more creative than their sign indicates.

Ruby Dove gives her parents a tour of the NEO campus.

A hot air balloon portrayed the theme, "Dobson ... on it's way up!"

Students and parents alike took advantage of the warm weather and campus tours.

Spotlight on Charm and Beauty
Helen Reddell gives break dancing a whirl.

Karen Succi is having an exciting time in Dobson Hall's T.V. lounge.

Could this be a remake of "Sleeping Beauty"?

Jeff Tillerson seems to have a problem in deciding where the trash container should go.
"Pit" video buffs.

Dorm philosophy class.

Do I have to?

Wagih traded Cairo, Egypt, for NEO-Harrill.

Cindy Smith giggles a lot during a midnight slumber party.

Tina Holt and Karen Stuchenschmidt relax and enjoy their hobby.
Boogie with the BEST ...

... and boogie we did. The annual Mash Bash and Halloween Dances were big IDC successes as usual. Both activities gave the NEO student body not only a study break, but a neat chance to reflect creative personalities.

Party guests included Klinger, Hawkeye's "Hotlips" Houlihan, Raggedy Ann and Andy, Smurf, Dracula and Kermit's sometime love Miss Piggy.

For the Mash Bash, the Harrill-Dobson lobby was transformed into the 4077th with the help of toilet paper streamers and medical signs. Keeping with the theme, "Ghouls Just Want to Have Fun," long hours spent on costumes paid off in a big way with cash prizes to the crew favorites: Hope Koester, dressed as a short person, placed First; Sherry South and Kathy Kimbrell received Second-place honors for their portrayal of an elderly couple; and the Third-place prize went to Lisa Hittle and Cary Tread, dressed as a saloon girl and a cowboy.

Randy Newman's song, "Short People," could easily have been the theme for Hope Koester's winning Halloween costume.
book photographer, Darrin Clements, was caught off guard on the other side of the cam-

J.J. and Hawkeye, portrayed by Greg Warlick and Rich McCasland, replaced their surgery greens with more casual attire.

Nick Framel uses his artistic talent to blend in with the Mash theme.

Students weren't the only folks who danced as Harrill Mom, June Chambers, boogied with the best.

Greg Morton certainly looked like a Smurf, though a bit taller than most of those who live in Smurfville.
NEO students became “Parents for a Night” as they “adopt” children who might otherwise not have Christmas or visit from Santa Claus.

Dr. Converse, David Engle, Gary Ice, and “Elf” Lauren Walters help Santa pass out gifts.

Good little kids wait for Santa’s presents.

This little boy listens carefully to Santa Claus, who knows if he’s been bad or good . . .

Christene Mace and her two kids share a special hug.
... And Santa said, "When you grow up, go to NEO!"

What a beautiful group of human beings!

Brande gets a big hug!

Alonzo and his "adopted" child seem entranced by a new toy.

Jerry Beck and Greg Warlick enjoyed being fathers for a night.
Oh, boy! A little girl’s dream came true.

Lauren Walters and Amy Goodale spice up Santa’s crew of helpers.

Lots of visiting goes on in every corner of the ballroom.

Hurry up! It must be something neat!

Children have a way of making a tree and presents just the very ever!

These kids seem to like their NEO “parents”.
THE VIKING
CLASS

CLASSES
Among American

Each year the NEO faculty committee accepts applications for Who's Who from students who are sophomores in standing and who have acquired enough credit hours to receive their diploma in May. The applicants to be chosen must have had a minimum of 15 points based on scholarship, leadership, service, loyalty and character.

Dear Student,

Since Northeastern A&M is dedicated to serving the educational needs of individuals who come to this campus, the 1986 edition of the VIKING is designed to tell our story as it happened in pictures and words. Just as the college is for the people, the photographs are of people—learning in many ways, in classrooms, in labs, in various activities.

You will gain a great deal of pleasure in the years ahead as you look through this yearbook and reflect on your achievements here. We hope you recall the events with the fondest memories. Remember NEO A&M with a sense of pride and belonging to a continuing tradition of excellence in education ... You are a very important part of NORSE SPIRIT. Our great traditions and spirit will continue to live and grow as you pass on that pride to younger generations. Our best wishes go with you as you continue your education, either back here at NEO A&M or at a four-year college.

Sincerely,

Bobby R. Wright

NEVER-ENDING STORY

CLOSING
Flying high is Peter Pan (Ken Harrelson).

Drama Creates Norse Pride

With every play full of action, vivid, exciting characters, and colorful, authentic scenery sets, NEO can assure standing ovations to great directors, casts, and crews who display talent, discipline, and commitment in every production.

Wendy (Stacey Johnson) flies with Peter Pan I (Ken Harrelson) and children (Allen Douthitt and Charlie Haney).

Old mean Crocodile (Joel Heidorn) slithers, to audience delight, toward a meal named Captain Hook.

Peter Pan II (Jennifer Dill) and Wendy (Lori Adams) listen to worried mother (Amy Goodale).
The cast of drama production "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Officer O'Hara (Alan Lay) loses his temper with Mortimer Brewster (Dan McKinney).

Brewster sisters (Rhonda Herrington and Victoria Goff) free instructor Tom Green of his miserable life with a cup of special tea.

Looks like a cup of Brewster tea does the trick!

Teddy (Jon Robinson) is gently admonished by Victoria Goff and Herb Bowman.
Student Life Take One
“Be cheerful . . .
Our revels now are ended. These our actors,
As I foretold you, were all spirits and
Are melted into air, into thin air;
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve,
And, like this unsubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rack behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on, and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.”

—William Shakespeare
SINGLE FRAMES
The Editor of the 1985-86 VIKING extends special gratitude for special assistance in meeting this year's production deadlines to the following people:

(1) Jana Lyn Thompson, Advisor on her first yearbook, for her guidance and counseling and hundreds of hours of her time;

(2) Inter-Collegiate Press for extending crucial deadlines;

(3) Monty Franks and Dr. Bobby Woods for photographic help;

(4) the NORSE WIND staff for picture collection;

(5) J.R. Stanton for his Hollywood cover design;

(6) Ed and Jean Craig for professional rush photography;

(7) Gerald Breeden, News Record journalist and photographer, for staying up until 2:00 a.m. processing and printing photographs;

(8) Robert Basye and Juanita Dixon for taking time away from Spring Break to help proofread hundreds of pages;

(9) Kevin Eifert, Terry Smith, and Nancy Blackwood, of Graphic Design and Printing Departments, for special rush layout design, ideas, copy typing, and lots and lots of encouragement; and

(10) C.T. Bain and Tom Poole for freeing up workspace and staff in the Library and Print Shop.

(11) Rollie Williams and Windell Rooney for electricity when we needed a working typewriter and heat during some cold months.
Digital copies of The Viking, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College's annual yearbook, are available in .pdf format on the NEO website for non-commercial purposes only. Scans were created using the best available editions; where stains, color-fading, and contributed marks (usually signatures) were visible on the original they also appear in the digital copy. The edge of some pages in oversized editions may be partially lost due to width limitations on the scanning bed. NEO yearbook editions that do not appear on the website are not part of the collection at present. If you would like to donate a yearbook, please contact the NEO Library.
