Proclamation

I, Bruno Czer, president of the student council, would like to take this opportunity in answering the newspaper's day, October 30, to our campus, to express by individual person in the field of journalism.

As representatives of the student and all the various organizations on the campus, I hope you will give me this opportunity to express my feelings and my thoughts in a way that is not too difficult for you to understand. I will try to express my feelings as accurately as I can, but I know that there are other students who may have different feelings and thoughts.

Looking Ahead

As college students we are always on the lookout for new and exciting activities. That's why we've decided to take a trip to the Great Smoky Mountains. The scenery is breathtaking, and there's something for everyone to enjoy. Whether you're a nature lover or just looking for a change of pace, this trip is sure to be a hit. We'll be staying at a cozy cabin in the mountains, where we can relax and enjoy the beauty of nature. It's a great opportunity to get away from the hustle and bustle of daily life and reconnect with ourselves. So pack your bags and get ready for an adventure in the great outdoors.

Dear Editor:

I am writing to express my concern about the lack of diversity in our student body. As a member of the LGBTQ+ community, I have noticed a significant absence of representation in our student organization. It is important that we have a space where everyone feels welcome and included. I believe that by working together, we can make our school a more inclusive and supportive environment for all students. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Letters to Editor
Play Up the Team

Dear Editor,

I wanted to let you know that I am a member of the school's volleyball team. We are currently preparing for our upcoming games, and I wanted to share some of the challenges we face. Our team is composed of students from diverse backgrounds, and we all have different strengths and weaknesses. It can be challenging to find a balance that works for everyone. However, we are working hard to improve our skills and work together as a team. We appreciate any support and encouragement you can provide.

Sincerely,

Cruising The Campus

Dear Editor,

I wanted to tell you about my recent experience at the University of Kansas. It was a wonderful opportunity to explore the campus and meet new people. I was particularly impressed with the diversity of the student body and the opportunities for scholarly engagement. I believe that our university is a great place to study and grow as a person.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dickerson
Nuptial Vows Solemnized
For Klefsman, Dickerson

The marriage of Miss Twinny Klefsman and Wayne Lee Dickerson was announced at the Marketsville Methodist Church at 3 p.m. Friday, Sept. 15 to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Klefsman. The Rev. W. H. Billingsley officiated. The Rev. C. C. Cottrell, Rufus W. Temple, Jr. and Rufus L. Smith were in the wedding party. The wedding party consisted of Miss Twinny Klefsman, Wayne Lee Dickerson, Anne W. Klefsman, Lucille Hall, and Mrs. John W. Klefsman.

The church was decorated with wreaths and bouquets of orange flowers. The bride and groom were seated in chairs on the left side of the church. The bride was attired in a white satin gown with a long train. The groom wore a white jacket and trousers.

A pink and white paper was placed on the floor in front of the altar. The entire wedding party walked down the aisle together. The bride and groom then exchanged vows and rings.

The reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Klefsman. The reception was attended by members of the wedding party and friends.

A toast was given by Mr. John W. Klefsman in honor of the newlyweds.

For the Upcoming Year...

Life in college can be hectic and demanding. Here are some valuable tips for preparing for the upcoming academic year:

1. Organize your schedule: Create a detailed schedule of your classes, assignments, and extracurricular activities. This will help you prioritize your time and stay on track.

2. Get involved: Join clubs, organizations, or sports teams to meet new people and develop your skills.

3. Stay healthy: Maintain a good diet, exercise regularly, and get enough sleep. This will help you be more productive and less stressed.

4. Manage your finances: Create a budget and track your expenses. This will help you stay within your financial limits.

5. Seek help when needed: If you feel overwhelmed or stressed, don't hesitate to ask for help. Your professors, advisors, or counselors are there to support you.

Greek Co-eds Pledge

The following pledges were made by the members of the Greek Co-ed's pledge in their initiation ceremony:

1. Attend all pledge meetings and events.

2. Support Greek Co-ed's events and activities.

3. Maintain high academic standards.

4. Show respect for all Greek Co-ed's members.

5. Be an active member of the Greek Co-ed's community.

Norse Win 7th Over Northern By 26-0 Count

Norseman, 6-6-5, won a 26-0 count over Northern at the Wise Field yesterday afternoon, thus bringing their series to within a two-game margin of the championship honors. The Norsemen's victory was their seventh in a row, and the Northern team's sixth loss in a row.

The Norseman's victory was a result of their superior play throughout the game. They held the Northern team to just two points in the first quarter, and continued their strong play in the remaining quarters. The Norsemen's defense was particularly effective, holding the Northern offense to just one point in the second and third quarters.

The Norseman's offense was also strong, with several players contributing to the final score. The Norseman's quarterback, John Brown, passed for two touchdowns, while the Norseman's running back, Henry Johnson, rushed for another.
