Frosh, Sophs Elect Officers
To Posts For Ensuing Year

Jack King and Jerry McPherson have been chosen by the Frosh through the 14-45 vote at Northeastern for homecoming king and queen. The election was held last week, with Jack receiving 748 votes and Jerry 478. During their reign, the two will be in charge of the homecoming activities. Jerry is a member of the L.D.S., and Jack is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. The homecoming theme is "lights of the '50s."

New Faculty Replacements Assume Various Positions

Five instructors added to Northeastern staff

The faculty of Northeastern University is being augmented this year with five new faculty members. The new additions will include a number of instructors in the arts and sciences departments.

Tests Indicate College Frosh Are Intelligent

According to the 1954 edition of The Official College Frosh Guide, college freshmen are more intelligent than their parents. The study, conducted by the American Psychological Association, found that freshmen are more likely to have a higher IQ than their parents. The report, based on a survey of 1,000 freshmen, concluded that the freshmen were more likely to have a higher IQ than their parents.

Two New Bands Organize On Northeastern Campus

With this final edition I want to take this space to thank all of the student organizations for their contributions to the success of the student newspaper. I also want to thank all of the students who have worked on this newspaper, especially those who have served as editors. We hope to continue to improve the newspaper and make it even better in the future.

Northeastern A&M Progress Shown in Campus Apartments

The smiling countenance of Miss Mary Lou Johnson, who is both charming and pleasant, is a joy to behold. She is one of the many residents of the new apartments, which are already occupied by some of the students. The apartments are well-designed and spacious, providing comfortable living for the residents.

Annual Tennis Tournament Slated For Opener Monday; Statham To Defend Title

Northeastern A & M annual tennis tournament will get under way Monday, Sept. 21, with Don Statham defending thenever. Don won the tournament last year by defeating J. Hamond in the finals. The matches will be held on the tennis courts, Statham and Vic Allison and Buddy Wiley, also of Statham, were the doubles in the tournament.

Mr. Walker, who is taking Coach R. W. Stahmberg's place as tennis coach at Northeastern, said that the tournament will be held on the courts in the school's athletic field.

The tennis team has shown a steady improvement in the last ten years, and the year should be no exception.
