Dr. James G. Carter, president of Northeastern A&M College, has recently been named to the chairmen's posts.

The announcement was made at a recent meeting of the National Federation of Student Agencies. Mr. Carter was appointed to the position at the urging of the Northeastern A&M College alumni association.

The appointment of Mr. Carter will take effect immediately and will continue for one year or until his successor is appointed.

Press Club Schedules Trip to Oklahoma A&M

The press club at Northeastern A&M College, under the direction of Phi Delta Kappa, has recently announced a schedule for a trip to Oklahoma A&M College.

The trip is scheduled to begin on Saturday, November 1, and will include visits to Oklahoma A&M College, Oklahoma State University, and the University of Oklahoma.

The purpose of the trip will be to foster closer relationships between the press clubs of the two colleges and to promote better understanding of the work of the press.

Townley Placed High In Nationals

The Northeastern A&M College Press Club placed high in nationals at the recent national convention of the National Federation of Student Agencies.

The club was awarded the first prize for an outstanding paper on the subject of "The Role of the Press in a Democratic Society." The award recognizes the club's outstanding achievement in the development of a meaningful and thoughtful paper on the subject.

Dr. Dawson Says N.O. Students Are "Wonderful"

"The students at N.O. are wonderful," Dr. J. A. Dawson, president of Northeastern College, said recently.

"They are dedicated to their studies and to improving their communities. They are a credit to the college and to the community."
Give a Hooray for Us

Here's a hearty slap on the back for the student body of Northeastern A & M College. Not for the football team, the band, the drama club, or the faculty, but for the student body. Because that's what we were before the Gampus football game.

This small college has a large heart, and it's full of pride for its students. The student body is not just a group of individuals; it's a community of learners, thinkers, and doers. And we're proud to be part of it.

The Life You Save May Be Yours

If 50,000 Americans were killed in one catastrophe, the news would rock the nation.

Yet last year, 88,000 Americans were killed and 1,800,000 were injured in auto accidents. So let's all be careful and save the nation.

Miss Faye Vann is NEO's 'First Lady'

Miss Faye Vann is NEO's 'First Lady.'

She has a kind, that pull and log on our heartstrings, are those that connect us with other people. We speak of 'homes' as being a place, a city, a country, a school, and for homes in all of these things, we find a heart and a home and a heart in all of these homes. It's a story of many hearts and homes, of love and heartbreak, of happy endings and unhappy endings. 'Home' is a story of how to make friends, of love and heartbreak, of happy endings and unhappy endings.
Former Norseman Is Picher Police Chief

Joe College Harris, former policeman, has been ordered to take some of the blame for the recent increase in crime in the downtown area. Harris is known for his keen observation and quick thinking.

Lasley and Grossman Are the First Lasses To Invade Aggie Land

Two prominent athletes are making waves in the traditionally male-dominated world of sports. Lasley, a member of the new women's basketball team, and Grossman, a star in the women's soccer league, are bringing a fresh perspective to their respective sports.
