College Youth Dies In Crash near Here

A sad and tragic note was added to the holiday scene when George Wilson Jr., Northeastern A&M college student, was killed in a car crash near Fittstown.

The victim was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice G. Wilson of 331 South 9th Street, Nevada.

The accident occurred on U.S. Route 75 about five miles north of Eufaula.

Cheer up and pastor at the local church said that the Wilsons had been planning to visit the youth for the Christmas season.

The exact circumstances of the accident are not available at this time.

R.O.T.C. Flight To Barksdale Base Is Success for Group

A flight to Barksdale, Louisiana, last week was no ordinary sightseeing treat for a group of students from Northeastern A&M.

The purpose of the flight was to provide an opportunity for members of the R.O.T.C. program to experience the thrill of flying in a military jet.

The aircraft used for the flight was a B-52 Stratofortress, considered one of the most advanced aircraft in the world.

The students were given a tour of the base and were able to see various aspects of the military operation.

Youthful Pastors Have Goals

BY LILIAN GANNERT

There is a special joy that comes from knowing that you have a purpose in life. It is the satisfaction of knowing that your work is important and that you are making a difference in the world. This is especially true for pastors, who are responsible for guiding and supporting the spiritual needs of their congregations. Young pastors are no exception to this rule. They may be just starting out, but they already have a sense of purpose and a determination to make a positive impact on their communities. They are dedicated to serving their parishioners and helping them grow in their faith. They are committed to leading their congregations in worship and prayer, and to providing them with the spiritual guidance they need. Whether they are working in large or small churches, young pastors are always looking for ways to improve their skills and enhance their abilities. They are never satisfied with standing still, but are always striving to learn and grow. They are constantly seeking out new ideas and approaches, and are not afraid to try new things in order to better serve their congregations. Young pastors are a vital part of the church, and their work is essential to the health and growth of the church. They are the future of the church, and it is up to us to support and encourage them in their work. With our help, they will be able to continue to serve their congregations and make a difference in the world.
