Golden Norse Start Baseball Workouts

The 1956 baseball team got under way Monday with new faces to be seen this year and new personalities to be filled in by the returning members. There were 33 players to take part in the first day's workout.

The only drawback to the first workout was that it was held in a downpour, and the Norsemen went to their barracks on the North Goshen Drive campus after an hour of the session. However, that didn't stop the Norsemen from doing their job. The team will practice Tuesday and Wednesday in V GmbH's gym, with the opening game scheduled for Friday against the A-B New York at 4 p.m.
