Fall Enrollment Exceeds 2300 NEO Students

Enrollment for the fall semester at Northeastern A&M College numbers 2,300 full-time students, according to Dr. Bruce G. Carter, college president.

"This is an increase of 15 percent over last year's enrollment."

Dr. Carter said, "Last year we had 2,000 students and we are very pleased with the continual growth and development of the college."

In previous years, there were about 200 more students enrolled in the college.

The freshmen class is the largest with 1,100 comprised of 759 sophomores.

The student body is comprised of 1,100 people from 57 different states.

Two Northeastern A&M students are among the 100 national winners of scholarships given by Ford Motor Company, according to Dr. Bruce G. Carter, college president.

Scholarship recipients are Jerry Smith, sophomore from Marshall, Ark., and Kenneth Boudewin, freshman from Novota.

The scholarships pay the students' tuition and college fees and board.

In addition, a supplementary contribution of $25 per year per student will be given the local college.

Both of the two winners intend to earn associate degrees in automotive technology. Their fathers are all connected with Ford agencies.

The scholarships were given on the basis of the students' prior academic achievement and leadership abilities.

Foreign Student Dinner Honors

Seven Countries

Northeastern A&M recently held its annual International Student Dinner in the Carter Student Union Banquet room.

The student senate sponsored the event to host some 38 students from seven foreign countries attending Northeastern A&M.

Dr. Bruce G. Carter, NEO president, introduced the special guests and spoke on the relationships of international students on campus.

The seven nations represented by the students were Honduras, Yemen, Iran, Lebanon, Iraq, Jordan, and Thailand.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the international students bringing a little of their homeland to the USA by singing songs and giving speeches in their native language.

The Mayflower Compact was one of the earliest forms of constitutions and the birth of the American Nation. Dr. Carter said, "If there were a time in the history of the great nation that we needed to get down to the fundamentals of America and to promote and to teach patriotism, that time is now."
Pilgrims Form Thanksgiving As A Tribute To Salvation

Many years ago an Indian tribe came to the aid of some white pilgrims by giving them an abundance of food to a time when their settlers were running out of provisions. On this day these people gave thanks to God and set aside one day each year for the celebration of their victories. This day they named Thanksgiving.

These hundreds years have passed since this day and each one of these years has had a certain day for giving thanks, complemented by an enormous feast. Thanksgiving this year will be no different. There will still be a holiday and feast of ham or turkey, but Thanksgiving is not just a time to eat down to a wonderfully cooked dinner. Also, it is not just a time for relaxation and watching television.

Thanksgiving is a busy day for quite a number of people because they will either be traveling to visit relatives or close friends, or be receiving them in their homes. Many conversations will arise; some about politics, some about personal problems, and some about sports.

Yes, Thanksgiving is a busy day, but time should be taken to acknowledge the freedom we share as American citizens. The United States is a free country, let us pray this Thanksgiving that it will always be. Let us also pray that our men in conflict will have a good Thanksgiving and that they will be coming home soon.

PLANS DEFINITE FOR WASHINGTON TRIP IN MARCH

A trip to Washington D.C. and New York City has been confirmed for spring break, according to David Flemming, instructor of speech, drama, and humanities. This trip is scheduled to commence on the Friday before the break, and will continue to the Friday of the next week.

The first night will be spent in Columbus, Ohio, as a rest stop. Saturday morning the tour will start for Washington D.C. and there will be three days of sight-seeing. Flemming has expressed hope of being able to have an audience with Senator Bentsen from Texas. The tour of New York City should be finished on Tuesday and there will be spent there touring such spots as Radio City Music Hall, a Broadway show, and NBC studio.

Flemming stated that these plans are on the agenda for the trip and nothing decisively arranged yet until the number of students going is known.

The cost of the trip is estimated at about $75 to $100 per traveling expenses. Personal entertainment and food will be on their own expense. Flemming estimated that $100 should cover the cost of the trip.

Students who would like to make commitments for the trip should contact Bill White, construction chairman.

Merrill Chaney and Antiques

NEO's Chaney Collects Antiques

Merrill Chaney, NEO woodworking instructor, has, for the past ten years, collected over 300 antique woodworking tools. His search for these old tools started over five years ago when he covered over a dozen different states. The collection has grown through both purchases and donations.

Of the over 300 items, over 75 per cent of these are 50 years old or older. Many are more than 100 years old. The most interesting tool in the collection is the double cross-hammer which is guessed to be at least 100 years old. Chaney has not been able to contact the company that manufactured this hammer.

Chaney began the collection because he wanted to do what he could to help learn something for woodworking education at NEO.

Chaney's interest has also stirred the interest of many of his students who are interested in antique woodworking tools.

Upon his retirement, Chaney plans to leave his tool collection to the college to be put on display for the enjoyment of interested students.

Campus Beauty Miss November

By Barbara Hugger

Thanksgiving vacation is just around the corner, which leads to comforting thoughts to NEO students. Another nice thought can be found when one thinks of the girls on campus. Our comforting thought for this month is Miss Adonna Zorel, a Miami freshman.

Adonna, an Arts and Science major, was chosen as Language Club Queen and is a member of the Norse Dancers. While dressing down her schedule, she also works fifteen hours a week as secretary in Joe Hubbel's, campus housing director and recruiter.

In high school, Adonna held many class offices. She was vice-president of her junior and senior classes, vice-president of the Spanish Club, and a member of theBeta Club for three years. Adonna was selected as

NEO Instructor Doubles As Actor

By Barbara Cooper

One of the brightest figures to be found in the NEO faculty is David Fronman, instructor in speech.

Fronman has been at NEO for five years and has been a student at Ohio State University in Columbus for two years at the University of Denver where he received his bachelor of arts degree in art history.

He is now working for his master of arts degree in literature at Kansas State College and hopes to finish there this summer.

Being a part-time actor, Fronman has participated in 300 theater productions in Miami, Jackson and Tulsa. He also works part-time as a stage manager and in the theater.

Fronman has taken his duties as an instructor to heart. He has received his bachelor of arts degree in art history and is now working towards his master of arts degree in literature at Kansas State College and hopes to finish there this summer.

Directing is one of the things Fronman likes to do best. He has displayed his fine talent for directing in such campus productions as the "Thief of Bagdad," "The Rape Of Redcaps," "The Miracle Worker," "Deadwood Dick" and "The Crucible."

When asked what kind of talent appears on a junior college campus such as NEO, Fronman said that NEO has been very fortunate.

Norsemen End Season With Winning Record

Northeastern A&M's Golden Norsemen football team, under the direction of head coach Chuck Neuman, concluded their 1966 football season with a 4-4 record. The Norsemen lost their title as national junior college champions by winning only five ball games.

NED traveled to Councilville, Iowa, in their opener and squeaked past the stubborn Golden Falcons, 29-24. A 13-yard run after an interception by Minco sophomore Larry Chappell provided the winning margin, as the Norse defense kept the Owatzas at bay.

For the second week in a row, the tenacious NES defender led the way to the Golden Norseman's home opening 23-6 victory over highly regarded Tyrer, Tex. Defensive back Ralph MCgee scooped up an Apache fumble in the fourth quarter and raced 49 yards to give the top-rated Vikings a 14-0 lead. The Norsemen then scored the final 19 points, led by the nose to the 1967 state title. The Norsemen scored their second goal of the day with a 24-yard touchdown pass, the first to the game, to first-year running back Tony Kizer late in the third quarter.

Terry Ash scored 24 points as the Norsemen scored their first goal of the day with a 24-yard touchdown pass, the first to the game, to first-year running back Tony Kizer late in the third quarter.

Fort Dodge Downs Norse in Iowa Cold

Northeastern A&M's Golden Norsemen were victims of a determined football team as they were trounced 31-21 by Iowa Central at Fort Dodge.

The Norsemen took advantage of an early break as the Norseman fumbled the ball on their own 8-yard line. Rich Yorgie gave the Norsemen an early lead as he rushed 70 yards for a TD on their first offensive play. They were more than the Panthers scored against.

The Norsemen first thrust came on a fumble recovery by freshman TB Tom Dick. The Norsemen then scored to take a 10-0 lead after a 39-yard TD pass, giving the Norsemen a 14-0 lead as they held the scoreless quarter. Terry Ash added a 24-yard field goal and 6 extra points.

A second half rally cost the Norsemen their third shutout of the year, as Ferreiras, VA., scored. The second half was the second goal of the day, scored by Ferreiras of Brades, who caught five passes for 48 yards, including a 5-yard grab from TB Steve Watson in the final seconds, was praised by the coaching staff.

ARLINGTON LEE Larry Harris, who carried eight times for 18 yards in the last quarter: FB Tom Dick, the leading rusher with 8 yards in nine carries and split end Stan Braden, who caught five passes for 48 yards, including a 5-yard grab from TB Steve Watson in the final seconds, were praised by the coaching staff.

The Norsemen were able to generate consistent offensive power.

The following Saturday, North eastern returned to Roberton Field and rebounded with a 44-33 win over Trinity. Cincy freshman signal-caller Steve Watson of Brades led the defensive efforts as he missed two touchdowns and ran for one. NED, who ousted the Trojans in total yardage 49 to 42, climbed to fourth in the national standings.

Guided by the crafty quarter back-loads of James Sminsky and a stingy defense, the Tulip University Norsemen dominated the game.

The Norsemen traveled to Fort Dodge and met a determined Iowa Central team which handed the Norse a sound 31-21 pounding. The Norse were hammered by injuries and continued injuries will force the Norsemen to face the University in their final game.

Returning losses, they rebounded from the 13-0 loss this week, to truncates Coffeyville, Kan., 34-6. Terry Ash scored several touchdowns to help the Norsemen win their season.

Regents Grant NEO Eligibility For Funds

Neotropical Oklahoma A&M was recently given eligibility for federal vocational and technical educational funds by the State Regents for Higher Education.

In addition to Northeastern A&M, Creeras State College at Warner, Eastern Oklahoma State College at Wilburton, Murray State College at Tishomingo and Northern Oklahoma at Tonkawa, were declared area vocational-technical schools by the regents under terms of a bill approved in the last session of the legislature. The law provides for land sharing by the schools and an area vocational school.

"I don't know exactly what this means or what the regents will include or the amount of funds we will receive, but I do know it is a step in the right direction toward establishing a tech center," said Dr. Bruce G. Carter, Northeastern A&M president.

"I feel that we can establish a tech school here and provide a greater opportunity to care for the needs of the people in this area."

This school is presently in the process of trying to acquire 50 acres east of the school for expansion purposes, which tentatively includes plans for vocational facilities.

Student Senate Christmas Party Honors Children

Neotropical Oklahoma A&M's annual Christmas party for deprived children is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 19 at 8:30 p.m. in the new gym.

Approximately 350 children have been adopted from the Muscle area.

A bus is expected to leave from NEO and go to the Seneca Indian School at 5 p.m. Each student who has a child at Seneca should plan to travel on the bus. The bus from the Indian school will transport the children back home after the party.

Those who have children from other than Seneca should make sure they know where their child lives. If complications arise as to the whereabouts of a child because of a wrong address, students should contact Dr. G. Charles Angle in the Library Administration building.

Musical Postponed Until After Dec.

Performance dates for NEO's musical "Oklahoma" have been changed from Dec. 15-18 to Jan. 8-12, according to Shari White, communication division chairman and musical director. The dates were changed because of the delay in the opening of the new Fine Arts Building.

The cast of the musical in their order of appearance are: Patrick Heyd, Bartlesville sophomore as Ado Annie; Johnny Johnson, Miami freshman as Curly; Mary Grace Crumwell, Tulsa freshman as Laurey; Billy Clark, Tulsa freshman as Ike; Don Wustal, Muskogee sophomore as P Kurds; Gene Vagner, Tulsa freshman as Bill; Jim Lowery, Miami freshman as Will Parker; Ronnie White, Miami freshman as Jud Fry; Cheryl Watkins, Tulsa sophomore as Annie Oakley; Skip Nicholason, Tulsa freshman as Al, Al Molinsky; Carla Lowery, Tulsa sophomore as Gertie Corrigan; Noel Weeds, Bartlesville freshman as Andrew Carnes; and Mike Atkins, Tulsa sophomore as Curly Barnes.

Some of the songs in the musical are: "Oh What A Beautiful Morning," "People Will Say We're In Love," "Surely With the Fronze on Top," and the state song "Oklahoma."

The technical division of the theatre department has planned some interesting stage effects for the show. One of which will be a curtain that seems to actually grow.

Norsemen End Season With Winning Record

Northeastern A&M's Golden Norsemen football team, under the direction of head coach Chuck Bowman, concluded their 29th football season with a 6-4 record. The Norseman lost their title as national junior college champions by winning only five ball games.

Despite the loss, the Norsemen found themselves at the top of the Blue and Gold, 39-24, to land the Norse their second home loss in the last decade. The former all-state from North Carolina kicked two Goal line touchdowns, including the winning one, a 1-yard bullet to John Kuhl late in the third quarter.

The Norsemen scored their most satisfying victory of the year with a 14-138 blowing of Eastern and previously undefeated Chicago Wizards on Oct. 18. Ash scored the first two, ten, as the Norseman jumped to a 14-7 advantage with 11:56 minutes gone. The Ag team sophomore also kicked a pair of 33 and 60 yard field goals and six extra points.

A second half rally came on the Oklahoman's third setback of the year, as Farmen, Va., scored the second in the series, came back to put a Bow-39 homecoming loss on the Norse. Trailing 19-14 at intermission, Farmen continued to扩大 the distance, with touchdowns in the final half.

The Norsemen traveled to Fort Dodge and met with a determined Iowa Central team which had the Norse a sound 21-21 pacing. The Norse were hampered by injuries and continued injuries will be an obstacle in the Norsemen's final game.

Returning home, they recharged from the 21-14 defeat and turned in a two-yard touchdown by the coaching staff to win the Norsemen their season.

Fort Dodge Downs Norsemen In Iowa Cold

Northeastern A&M's Golden Norsemen were victims of a determined football team as they were turned 21-21 by Iowa Central at Fort Dodge.

The Panthers took advantage of an early break as the Norsemen fumbled the ball on their own 3-yard line. Rich VanGork gave the Panthers an early lead as he fumbled for a TD on their first offensive play. This in turn more plays the Panthers scored again.

The Norse first threat came on a 10-yard run by freshman Tom Dick. The Norsemen then had to make a first down from the 37 yard line to give the ball up at 14. The victory tied the record of the Norsemen and the game ended up with no score.

After halftime, John Kuhl, who scored eight times for 38 in the last quarter, QB Tom Dick, the leading rusher with 38 in nine carries and upset Kuhl's 1,107 yard mark.

Guided by the cutting quarterback of James Bowman and a stingy defense, the Tulsa University Norsemen finished their season.

The Scoreboard

The end of football season has opened the hunting season for many sophomore players who hope to continue their career at a four-year school. Most of these players have never received recognition for their performance this season, so through this column I hope to let the three people know that their effort did not go unnoticed.

Starting with the offensive line, one of the least talked about but the most important from the standpoint of the center position is Cecil Talbot. Cecil, a starter on kick-off returns, has made many assists on tackles which kept the runner from going all the way. At center position is Mike Wadgula, who was up and down in the starting lineup because of injuries. Mike has fine pass blocking ability and helped prevent the Norse quarterback from being sacked.

Jerry Mitchell and Tom Fletcher share the offensive tackle position. Mitchell started and was named outstanding lineman in the Norsemen's first game against Centerville, Iowa, but due to a back injury was sidelined and replaced by Fletcher. Tom was an outstanding line blocker for the Norse last season, but a torn ligament forced him to switch to the offensive tackle position. The tight end spot is occupied by Rich Fonse who had the size and hands to start but was beaten out by freshman Mike Hendy. Rich was moved to defense but failed to make the starting lineup. Occupying the line position in the split end position is Stan Boudreaux who jumped into the starting lineup and turned in a fine performance in the Fort Dodge game. Dick Francis is known on the Norsemen's staff as a奔波 since he was switched from quarterback to split end to defensive back to quarterback.

The other defensive line were end David Slatten, tackles Everett Stagg and Jim Fringsheil. Fringsheil was up and down for the rest of the season but lost his position to Stagg.

Leading the linebackers were Rod LaCourse and Brooks Welsh. Rod started at halfback all season for the Norse and possesses fine leadership qualities which sparked the defensive unit. Brooks Welsh is a prime example of how determined the linemen behind a player. Brooks gives 100 per cent effort every time he is in a ball game. One of the least publicized defensive backs on the Norsemen's coaching staff is Jeff Rossow. "Dad," as he is called by the players, the head coach, was an assistant in the defensive where the season started but suffered a bad ankle injury and did not see action as a starter until the Fort Dodge game.
