NEO Aggies Propose Club

Approximately 30 aggie students meet Thursday nights in Room 322, to discuss the possibilities of forming a rodeo club.

Plans were discussed for both a girls and boys rodeo team. The discussions also led to the idea of promoting Panama R.M.P.'s interest in rodeo in early October.

Dances will be planned for the meeting at which time officers will be elected.

New Techniques in Watercolors Decorate Library

Thirty-nine watercolor paintings from the Springfield Art Museum in Springfield, Mo., are currently on display in the Northeastern AAM Library. The works of art represent the folk art style of watercolors, from the early 1800s to modern times. The paintings were selected from a collection of 300 by the Watercolor Society of the U.S.A., which holds an annual show in Springfield.

The show will run through Sept. 30.

Mrs. S. E. Page stated that the paintings were selected by the traveling exhibit committee, which chose the paintings for the exhibit. The show will run through Sept. 30.

School Vandalism Cost The Students

With the beginning of every school year there are always problems to iron out and it seems that this year one of the big problems on the NED campus has to do with the vending machines placed in the dorms, cafeterias and hallways. Students have been found in contact with these machines when their last zesty bar of candy has been chipped away or immediately take their aggressive intent on the machines by hitting them with a screwdriver in the core return. Action of this type can only hamper the situation more.

The money from these machines goes to make this campus much more so the students are now wise to the student activity fund, the game room, cafeteria and will be used to keep the new pool open for the student use when it is completed. Tearing up these vending machines will only cause their removal, as a result the money is returned from the student activity fund and perhaps cause a few sleepless nights for the person who wasn’t able to have his milk and cookies before bed.

When a student has a run in with one of these machines the last thing they should do is kick, punch or beat the machine. Do not remove or fix the machines, remember the repair work may be the one that fills the gap in your room with the smell of burned food. If anything like this happens to you, collect your work with the repairman or your dorm manager and tell the other students to do the best they can to have the machine repaired. For the good of all students.

Other machines used has been observed on campus as well. Students have pulled up shrubs and even taken them to the classes. This has been a problem for some unknown reason. These shrubs are cut through the rooms and rooms and you may be losing your money. You are there to help the campus and should not be taken for granted. Drink the beauty of these shrubs with your eyes and not your bush trimmers.

This is truly our campus and it is the responsibility of each student to see it is a kept nice. So next time you want to kick the shrubs at the machine, think twice before you kick back.

State Champion Twirler Highlights A & M Band

RONNIE LOWERY

Marching and twirling for Northeastern A&M's Norse Band is Ronnie Lowery, the Oklahoma State twirling champion. Lowery has been selected the title of state champion for the past five years winning over 41 first place medals and trophies.

A graduate from Daniel Webster High School in Tulsa, Lowery was featured twirler in the high school band and has performed for such celebrities as Jayne Ann, Jayne Yeager and Dewey Barrett. Lowery says he will become interested in twirling when he watched the bands during halftime at football games. He began twirling at the age of 8 and was his first trophy at that age.

He was offered scholarships to Oklahoma State University, University of Oklahoma, University of Texas, and Northeastern A&M. Lowery says he chose Norse because it was a junior college with a steady environment.

A freshman, Lowery is majoring in data processing and plans to attend either Oklahoma State University or the University of Oklahoma upon graduation from Northeastern A&M.

Lowery has a two brothers also attending NEO and two sisters at home ages 12 and 14. The youngest, is the twirler for the Daniel Webster high school band and hopes to someday hold the title of Oklahoma State Turving Champion.

As a feature twirler for NEO's Norse band, Lowery will be performing numerous twirling exhibitions with double flags, fire batons, hoops, baby bikes, lanterns, and machines during halftime entertainments at the Golden Norsemen football games.

In January, Lowery will be competing with state champions twirlers from all over the world at the World National Twirling Contest in St. Paul, Minn.

Lowery plans to give lessons in all fields of twirling, marching, and competition. If you are interested contact Ronnie Lowery or Mrs. Swanson.

MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE
Forms Campus Inc.
(Campus Ministry, Inc., an organization which will function for the first time this fall, serves campus students who wish to become better acquainted with the ministries of churches and their programs. The Bishop Christian, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Catholic, Lutheran, and Methodist churches made up the campus ministry, under the leadership of Charles A. Neil, Jr., president; Charles E. Howard, vice president; and Dr. Ron Gilbert, secretary-treasurer.

The Campus Ministry is a joint operation of religious services on campus whose board of directors will be composed of the ministers of each church. Three students, three members from each denomination and one alternate delegate fill the absence of any of the others.

National Gallup Poll

(Editors' note: The current poll was taken some months after the close of the Democratic National Convention. The candidate of a party which has held a convention shortly before a poll is taken usually gets a boost as a result of the attendant publicity he has received.)

As the 1968 presidential campaign gears moves into high gear, Richard Nixon holds a comfortable 43 to 31 lead over Hubert Humphrey, with George Wallace receiving 18 per cent of the popular vote.

The latest national findings, based on personal interviews conducted Sept. 3-7, present a slight gain for Humphrey over the previous survey conducted on the basis of the Gallup conventions in late August. November 1968.

In the earlier survey the vote was 46 per cent for Nixon, 29 per cent for Humphrey and 25 per cent for Wallace.

The following question was asked of the representative sample of 1,600 adults in personal interviews in 32 localities.

"If the presidential election were held today, which one of the following candidates would you vote for?"

In the election, the Republicans, Humphrey and Wallace, or Falany, the candidate of the American Independent party?

The results, based on persons who are currently registered to vote and the trend:

Undecided

George Wallace, the third party candidate running on the American Independent party ticket, is preferred by approximately one in five nationally, but Wallace did not make his presence felt in the Midwest, where 12 percent currently voted for him.

Earlier poll findings indicated that Wallace was ahead only in five deep south states. But current survey evidence shows Wallace's support growing in the border states, increasing the possibility that Wallace could carry more than all of the 13 states of the South if elections were held at this time.

The following table shows the support of the major region of the nation, based on a combination of the last two surveys:

Peace Corps Director Jack Vaughn predicts continuing protest action on college campuses in the coming year because many students have not tuned in to the real cause of unrest on college campuses.

In an article in the September issue of the magazine, Vaughn said: "It's becoming clear that half of today's students are not so much interested in the protest movement as they are in the social and political action, but who have not engaged in direct or indirect protest movements."

"There is another 30 percent committed to social and political action but who feel the goals of their protest movement can be attained through other methods," says Vaughn.

"In the end, we believe in radical or anarchoism in their views to be considered out of the question."
Norse Defense Shines Again

Magill's TD Helps Down Tyler Texas

Defense was the name of the game as the Golden Norsemen scored a last minute charge by the Apostles of Tyler, Tex., to down them 19-2 while a capacity crowd at Robertson Field last Saturday night.

Three freshmen from three states scored a touchdowns each for coach Clark Bowman's Norsemen in giving them a 2-0 record for the young season. This Saturday night the Norsemen play at Kilgore, Tex., against the Kilgore Rangers, who lost to Tyler by a 31-7 score the previous week.

Tarkhiss Larry Harris of Fort Worth, Tex., scored the first Norse TD at 11:21 in the first quarter on a 2 yard run. The play after the Norse recovered a fumbling punt at that point. Harris was near the left end and then cut diagonally to the right of his left guard. Dick Holloman's extra point kick was wide to give the Norsemen a 6-0 lead.

Tyler evening the score with 12:23 left in the second quarter when both Rick Naber's of Austin intercepted QB Randy Crow's pass and ran 80 yards to the goal line. Mike Iron's extra point kick was blocked by David Hail and Bob Luchner.

With 30 seconds left in the third quarter, freshmen Mel Riggin and Clarence, W. Va., slashed through a hole at the left side and named secondary defenders on a 16-yard TD dash. Steve Duda's extra point kick was wide to give the Norsemen led 12-6.

Defensive back Ralph McNeil of Sebring, Fla., snapped up the fumbling ball on a Tyler fumble and dashed 45 yards for a touchdown with 11:05 left in the fourth quarter. Holloman's conversion kick was wide.

At 9:10 in the last quarter, W. Harriet Landry, another freshmen from the Norsemen caught a pass from Naber after a long struggle with Magill at the 18 yard line and then raced around the goal line on a play that covered 43 yards. Naber was stopped a yard short on a conversion run.

Jerry Bishop of Tyler recovered a Norse fumble on the Norse 5. The Apostles moved to the 7 before giving up the ball when a pass falling on the fourth.

With 1:32 left, the Apostles broke over the 50 after a 31 yard pass by Terry Ash. QB Ramey passed to Chad Waytman at the ball on the 37. Another arial made it to the 29. A run back to the 10. Landry had a yard. With fourth down and 40 seconds left, a 34 yard pass to Naber put the ball on the 38. Another pass was incomplete. With only 1:33 left to go, Ramey's pass was complete to 40 for 30 yards on the last play of the game.

The Norsemen's quarterback Randy Crow, displays his Irish running ability against the rugged defense of Tyler, Texas. Crow suffered a similar separation in the game which the Norsemen won 3-2. Randy will miss the next game at Kilgore, Texas on Saturday night.

With Cameron going into a four-year schedule and Oklahoma Military Academy dropping football entirely, Northeastern A&M is the lone entry in Oklahoma's junior college ranks.

The Norsemen are trying to win their second straight junior college title and score chances for doing so are excellent. Although they lose their All-Americans, quarterbacks Doug Mathews and inbacker Emile Vanacos, Norseman leadership has been stressed by Coach Bowman. Norsemen have some of the most aggressive athletes in recent years as top prospects. Setting as all-time total record of 138 candidates for pre-season practice for the squad has been trimmed to 18 players.

This year promises to be one of the best with top freshmen prospects such as Joe Harrison, Mel Riggin, Larry Harris, Tom Dick, Ken Fields and many others. Stars of '67' Champs: Dotting Many Rosters

By Bill Barlow

With many new faces dotting the Golden Norseman football team this year, the grade of the 1967 national championship signals are scattered across the country in hopes of bringing a winning spirit to their new schools.

Last year's NCAA "Player of the Year," Doug Holloway, signed to play for fellow-Pioneer Bill Pate at Vanderbilt, Kansas State may be the most convincing of the intrasquad offense, the 9-7, 238-pound star has been switched to defensive halfback for the Commodores.

Joining Andy DeShaw at the Nashville school is defensive halfback Bob Allgood. Though Vandy has been deep in the caliber of the Southeast Conference, none two from NES could be the keys out of the basement.

Florida State University has three former Norsemen on its roster this season. Probably the most prominent is Ronnie Lenoir, a Golden All-American at NES last year. The F.S.U.'s Ehardt was drafted by Norse coach Bob Bowman as the most dedicated player he has ever coached.

Also playing for the hometown is John Pelt, an honorable mention All-American at defensive halfback, and offensive tackle Gary Vassey. Both are returning to their alma maters to continue their football careers.

Thief Gives Norse Win In Opener

By Andy DeShaw

Bartie Chapman's third quarter touchdown after an interception gave the top-ranked Golden Norsemen a thrilling 34-14 comeback victory over Centerville, Iowa, before an excited crowd of 600 on Sept. 16.

The sophomore from Minnehaha, roped high to pick off quarterback Ralph Bond's pass and ran 27 yards to score. Dick Holloway placed the all-important extra point for the margin of victory.

Weavers of a 254 net over highland, Kansas, in their other halfback and quarterback Golden Paladins kept the Norsemen to their tops throughout the entire game.

After NES failed in a 45-yard dash to score on the fourth down play by Larry Rarick to wide, Centerville finally scored 99 yards to score. A 45-yard touchdown run to the visitors' Bayley line by fullback Ed Mose was the halfback's winner. With 8:30 remaining in the fourth quarter, Ronnie Ford fielded a punt and ran it off for the score to make it 27-3.

In the second quarter, Norsemen coach Bob Bowman went down with a sprained ankle and had to be carried off the field. It was his first time in 10 years on the sidelines.

When Harry Santa Jr., the Falcon's head coach, saw Bowman on the sidelines, he remembered the much-debated controversy over his team's scoring methods.

In the second quarter, Ashbo leaped a 45-yard pass to the Falcon's three yards out, but before the touchdown was scored, the Norseman's defense and the referees failed to distinguish the touchdown from the regular game.

The officials admit that the Norsemen's defense was not as strong as the previous game, and that the referees failed to see the difference.

Defense Way Of Life For NEO's "Yank"

By Almyth Frank

For the past two football seasons, defense has been a way of life for Ron Yankowski. The big 4-4, 250-pound tackle is no stranger to NES fans. Last season as a freshman he was the hero of the defensive unit.

Ron, who hail's from Wabash, Ohio, promises to be the second All-American that this team has produced in as many years. Last year Doug Mathers was voted the hero for his outstanding quarterbacking ability. Ron has played football his entire life and was named All-Conference his senior year in the Lucky Seven circuit. Ron's love for the game has made him a force competitor on the Norsemen's defensive unit.

His teammates refer to him as "Yank." Coach Chuck Bowman thinks that "Ron Yankowski will be our best asset. He should be a Golden All-American." Ron is dedicated to defense and knows that, "a defensive lineman feels the pressure of a great game because he is responsible for stopping the advancement of the opposing team, and he feels that this year the team is more experienced than last year."

When asked about the Norsemen's prospects this season Yank replied, "I know that we can win it all the way because the whole team has a winning attitude or become a high school coach.

Why We Carry GANT

There's more than one reason to carry GANT.

In addition, "needled into the word and word of every GANT shill," there's flair, fit and douse—those vital elements that make all the difference when a man wears a GANT.

We owe GANT because they take shorthand seriously. They're here to please (like we are) when it comes to fit of collar, its roll, its profile—how much it shows above the suit collar. They're faithful about the way the body of the shirt drapes and falls. All men are assured to achieve that vital ingredient which gives comfort and appeal. In substance, GANT shirts are keyed to the discerning tastes of well-grounded men who appreciate quality. These men are our customers.
