NEO Plans For Grads As Homecoming Nears

"Love, Nurse Style" is the theme for Homecoming 1971 at Northeastern A&M College. Students and faculty plan a parade and other activities to celebrate the event. The parade will start at 2 p.m. on October 31.

The main event will be a banquet at 7 p.m. in the Student Union Building. The banquet will be followed by a dance in the Alumni Center. Other activities planned include a parade, a game night, and a concert.

Bloodmobile Visits NEO Today; Stays Until Five

The Red Cross Bloodmobile visits every campus across the state. Today it is at Northeastern A&M College. Students, faculty, and alumni are encouraged to donate blood.

Donors should be at least 17 years old and weigh at least 110 pounds. They should bring a photo identification.

Winners will be determined on the basis of total class members that show up, including rejections. According to Convention, the event should take approximately an hour. Blood is tested for acceptance or rejection. Students that are anemic, underweight, or have a blood type that is not needed will be notified.

Winners will be announced at the banquet. They play a game and attempt to guess the blood type of the donor who won.

Nominations Being Accepted For NEO's Outstanding Alumni

Former students of Northeastern A&M are being asked to nominate an old classmate for recognition at the annual Alumni Banquet during the annual Homecoming festivities.

Last year's inaugural award was given to David Coppole, vice president of the Student Senate, who was nominated by the Alumni Association of Arts from NEO in 1969.

Nominations should be accompanied by a brief resume of the individual's accomplishments since graduation. They should be submitted to the Alumni Association office.

This year's winner will receive a plaque during the annual alumni banquet scheduled for 7 p.m. in the Student Union Building.

Mid-Term Exams Start Next Week

Examinations marking the half-way point of the Fall semester will be held at NEO next week. Oct. 25. Nine-week tests are to be given during the regular class period.

Grade reports covering the nine-week period are to be returned to all instructors by Oct. 24. The report card is to be submitted to the Registrar.

Alums Sell Place Mats

Featuring four color pictures of campus beauty spots, place mats of Northeastern A&M will again be on sale this year by the alumni Association.

The mats are $2.50 each or $4.00 for the complete set. Kent Jeffers, president of the Alumni Association, pointed out that the sets would make ideal Christmas gifts for students to give this year.

The mats can be purchased in the Business office of the college bookstore.
Involved With People Aids Senate President

By Kathleen Williams

Although many students may not know the newly-elected Student Senate President, Charles E. Nixon, he has benefited from his effective representation of time to the Student Senate during the last year. Nixon is a Texas Sophomore, de-decided to attend this fall, which he was attending the University of Texas, where he had been attending University by the State University. The next year the Senate became even more active under Nixon. This year, the Senate has been particularly active in the area of campus, with a number of sena-tional issues being discussed.

The effectiveness of the Student Senate does not depend totally upon one person. The Senate needs to get involved with people. Some of the challenges he needs to get involved with people. Since that time he has become active in the Student Senate, represented the

Carol Finnell Selected
Norse Star Assistant

By Debbie Powell

One of the most energetic students on campus is sophomore Carol Finnell. Finnell, business major and member of the NED Norse Stars, who was selected by Carol Cagleman, director, to be her assistant for 1973.

"Mrs. Cagleman selected me because she always remembered me in her daily activities," said Finnell.

Being chosen as a Norse Star is a high honor, since the students on the team must meet certain standards. The team consisted of students in the following categories:

- Business
- Accounting
- Finance
- Marketing

The Norse Stars are a well-known dance team and are one of the most popular groups on campus. They perform at various events, including homecoming, winter carnival, and other campus events.

The Norse Stars are led by Todd Jones, who is in his second year as team captain. Jones is joined by his assistant, Carolee Finley, who is in her first year as assistant.

Norse Herd Buffs On Long Passes For Fifth Win

After battling in a sostensoful battlestand, the Golden Norsemen got things going and bounced the West Texas State freshmen, 35-13, Oct. 7, in perfect football weather.

The previous best half was highlighted by the defensive unit holding the Buffaloes at the 6-yard line after long a drive shortly after the opening kickoff. The Norsemen’s offensive attack was effectively run, but steps and failures to convert on third-down situations bothered their attempts. The Norsemen were first to get on the scoreboard in a 94-Mike Glitter and FB Curtis Conlon on a 3-yard pass play for a score. Glitter was effective in using the pass to pick apart the Texas defense. Conlon connected with H. H. and 23-yards capped the 6-yard drive. Ken Cooper’s kick was good.

The Norsemen scored when West Texas State’s Steve Gobin took a handoff from Norseman C. J. Pedronin and ripped kickers for the score. Bruce Weyer’s kick was good.

About two minutes later, NED took the lead again on a 34-yard pass from Glitter to Conlon. The 34-yard drive was capped in the second quarter and remained in the third quarter and the scoring play was almost a carbon copy of the first NED score. Early in the final period, every Norseman thought the Buffaloes were taking a Texas pass and stroked 75 yards for a score. But one of the officials determined that Bill had stepped out of bounds at the 34 with the ball.

So, coming right back in the same way, Freddie Caroline reached for the end zone, only to be tossed on out. And that one was the last of the game. The Norsemen took the 35-13 win.
