December 8, 1972

Dear Students, Faculty and Staff:

I want to take this opportunity to extend "Season's Greetings" to all Northeastern Oklahoma A&M students, faculty, and staff and to express my desire that you experience all of the happiness and good will that Christmas represents. I wish for you the very best of the New Year and I am sure that each of us can make it a better New Year by sincerely applying our talents.

In my opinion, this first semester has been a good one, even though it has not been exactly as each of us would have it. We sincerely hope that each of you will plan to continue through the second semester and help make it the best ever at NEO.

Best wishes to you, your friends, and your families.

Sincerely,

D. D. Creech
President

Because of weather conditions, NEO students, like Roy Snyder, Wynetta, and Don Woods, Tulsa, were planning anxiously at the sky in hopes of clearer weather on Monday, Dec. 11, for the Annual Children's Christmas Party. But the weather did not clear and the party had to be rescheduled for Wednesday night, Dec. 13.
Chemistry Instructor

Accepted Co-Author

Steve Hawkins, chemistry instructor at NEO, is on sabbatical from the school this semester. Hawkins was working on a Public Health Service grant at Kansas State College at Pittsburg.

The Student Senate sponsored the performance, forming a committee from student council to determine its schedule. After hearing some of the student's ideas, Hawkins was able to accommodate their needs.

Sleeping In Need's Classes Impossible

O.E. Need, Chairman of Physical Sciences, Mathematics, and Engineering Divisions has been an NSD staff member since 1958. He may or may not be against his time, unless he doesn't humble himself.

Talking to him, one gets the feeling that something inside him wants to jump out and dance. Listening to his lectures, students soon learn he's not all fun and games. It's hard to say what lies under his semi-conservative front.

His office on the first floor of Bishop Hall discloses nothing unusual--at first glance. A picture on the wall of Need 25 years ago. Not unusual? It's signed in a toiler's hand: "I don't know how that got there." Says Need, as a shooter on top of a file cabinet, is an old rusty sword. "The sword? Oh, I take my sword up and jump in wearing my hat and hat. It helps to keep my students from sleeping." Sleeping in his classes isn't a problem. It's impossible. To do so, one must wear his semi-conservative front.

Filing For Senate Offices Scheduled

Filing for Senate offices for the spring semester will begin Monday, Jan. 31 and end Friday, Feb. 4. Filing may be done in the Convener's office, room 202, second floor, Library-Administration Building.

Finals Mark End Of '72 Semester

Semester finals mark the end of the '72 fall semester. Official classes end tomorrow but the holiday does not officially begin until 3 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 30. Classes will resume on Wednesday, January 20.

Blowing In The Wind

By James Ellis

The 1972 edition of the Golden Norsemen football team proved to be the most powerful machine in school history according to statistics released recently. Not only did the team score more points than ever, but an assault on several team and individual records was made.

The Norse juggernaut rolled in a 28-14 season record including a tie for the Iowa Central Panthers in the Mid-American Bowl and a lost to the Eastern Aces. But along the way, the Norse outscored opponents 436-119, for a 4.4 points-per-game average. The ten wins also tied the school record, held by the 1969 team.

There were several individual records set with Freddie Carbone and Larry Hutchinson leading the assault. Carbone set five individual season records and two two-season marks. The individual record that he established include most yards rushing, 1,198, most touchdowns by rushing, 18, most touchdowns scored, 24, most yardage (rushing and receiving), 1,198. Mike Glazer set a new record by completing 566 percent of his passes. He was good on 31 of 51 attempts on the season and accounted for 10 TD's. Ken Cooper set a new mark for extra points, hitting 26 out of 26 times. And Grant Lewin led the nation with his record setting 1,664 average on 46 kicks.

Carbone also set two individual two-season marks, most touchdowns by rushing, 18 and most TD's scored, 24.

The defensive unit also set their share of records with Larry Hutchinson leading the way. New standards included for tackles, 31, by Hutchinson, most interceptions, 9, by Butch Hill, most tackles, 12, by Hutchinson, and most big plays, 13, also Hutchinson.

On the national scene, the Norse were the third leading team in total offense, with 333.2 yards per game. The 418 net yards were accomplishment by 1,966 yards rushing and 1,644 yards passing. Carolina was the national scoring champion, came in fourth in rushing and fifth in total offense.

Besides the NCAA All-American selection of QB Glazer in the first team and Freddie Carbone in the second team, Dewayne, Grubbs, a California publication. Carolina and David Cheves were chosen in the first team. Honorable mention nods went to Larry Hutchinson, Don Vincent, Glazer, and Mike McGirt.

SPECIAL

Players honored at the annual football banquet in the Center Student Union include Larry Hutchinson, Outstanding Defensive Lineman, Butch Hill, Defensive Back, Freddie Carbone, Offensive Back, and Ronnie Reed, Defensive Lineman. All of those named received a trophy and certificate for their achievements.

Caroline Desires To Do Things Better

by RONALD MORE

Freddy Carbone is a name that comes up when talking about the Norsemen. He played football for the Norsemen and was a standout performer. However, his time at Norse is remembered for his ability to overcome challenges and excel in his sport.

Caroline, on the other hand, is known for her desire to improve and do better. She is driven and passionate about her work, and her dedication has led her to achieve incredible results. Her determination to succeed is a testament to her character and work ethic.

Both Freddy and Caroline share a common thread of excellence and hard work. They push themselves to be the best they can be, and their efforts are paying off in significant ways.

Freddy's story is one of perseverance and determination. Despite facing challenges, he rose above them and achieved success. Caroline's story is one of dedication and hard work. She is always striving to improve and achieve her goals.

It's easy to see why both Freddy and Caroline are admired and respected by those around them. Their stories serve as inspiration to others who may be facing similar challenges. They show us that with hard work, determination, and a willingness to overcome obstacles, anything is possible.

The Norse Wind is proud to present these stories of excellence, and we look forward to seeing what the future holds for Freddy and Caroline.
