President Welcomes Frosh and Returnees To Campus

Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
Miami, Oklahoma 74354
August 24, 1972

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME for the NORSE WIND

Dear Student:

Again it is my very real pleasure to welcome you to the number one junior college in America - Northeastern Oklahoma A&M. It is delightful to renew acquaintances with returning sophomores, and I want you to know that we are depending upon you to provide leadership for new students who are coming to our campus. I know that you will, by example, transmit the true spirit of NEO. To you freshmen, we believe that you will find your fellow students, the faculty, and the administration to be warm, friendly, understanding, and always willing to help.

We hope all of you are coming here with a genuine and sincere desire to study and learn and that you have an exciting and profitable educational experience while on this campus.

I offer the services of my office, and that of all administrative staff and faculty, at any time we can be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

D. D. Creecy
President
10 Newcomers Join NEO Teaching Staff For 1972

Ten new members have joined the teaching staff at NEO for the 1972-73 school year. Among them are four doctoral candidates, a master's candidate, a registered nurse, and a math and science major.

Missouri Company Accepts Contract For 1973 Viking

A Marchelle, Missouri firm has accepted a contract to publish the 1973 Viking. The contract is for the printing and mailing of the newspaper. Students interested in becoming involved in the Viking should see the Viking advisor, who is located in the Communications Department.

New Programs Accepted By State Board

Three new programs at the associate degree level have been accepted by the Oklahoma State Department of Higher Education and added to NEO's curriculum. The programs are in the fields of Physical Education, Business Management, and Allied Health.

Aggies Host Annual Feed

The annual feed will be held on campus. It will feature a variety of food and activities, including a raffle and a dance.

Editorial...

The job of any newspaper is to communicate its readers current happenings of the day. A newspaper's job is to report the news, to inform the public of what is happening in their community. This is the job of the NORSE WIND—to report the news, to inform the public of what is happening at NEO. We want to make sure that we are giving our readers the latest and most accurate information.

New Outfits Increase Norse Stars Wardrobe

The Norse Stars have added new outfits to their wardrobe for the upcoming season. The outfits include a new set of uniforms and a new set of cheers. The new outfits will be used for the rest of the season.

Last Day To Add Classes September 8

Students have until September 8 to add classes. This is the last day to make any changes to your schedule. Make sure to sign up for the classes you want before the deadline.

Add these by husband, Don, Marie Nichols, costume manager of the Norse Stars, said the new outfits are a result of the hard work of the costume department. The new outfits will be used for the rest of the season. The new outfits are a result of the hard work of the Norse Stars. The new outfits will be used for the rest of the season.

Student Proctors Change Responsibilities And Titles

A change in duties is minor for some student proctors but has led to new titles at NED for those working in housing. The Resident Hall Assistant Counselors began their biseventy training Aug. 14 to learn their responsibilities for the school year.

The 19 were on hand for NED students checking into dormitories when registration began Thursday, Aug. 14. Prior to the enrollment date, the assistant counselors learned how to teach on campus into the total college program.

Guest lecturers at their biseventy sessions included Presidents D. D. Creedy, Dr. Charles Anglo of instruction; R.A. Vertes, director of financial aid; Archie Guarisco, assistant dean of men; Mrs. Ruth Maxwell, dean of women; Elizabeth Holm, registrar; Mildred Carter, business manager, and representative from counseling, student services, campus security, and health services.

Masquers Schedule First Production

"The Mouse That Roared" will be the drama department's first production of the 1973-74 school year at NED.

Variety will be the theme throughout the year with five shows scheduled in the Fine Arts Center, three in the fall semester and two during the spring term. Short White and students were made to give a wide range of acting opportunities to drama students and also to provide various types of entertainment for the community theatre-goers.

"The Mouse That Roared" is scheduled for Oct. 13 and 14 followed by "Night is My Enemy" on Nov. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

The traditional Children's Theatre production will be "Oliver" slated for Dec. 4 through 10.

"Carnival" will run Feb. 21 through 23 and "Roman and Juliet" will close out the season April 13, 14, and 15.

Miami Hotline, Inc.

Someone Who Cares

A new service in Miami begins Sept. 5 in Miami Hotline, Inc. The hotline is provided after emergency telephone services at Oklahoma City, St. Louis, and Los Angeles. All troubled or lonely students are invited to call HOTLINE at 348-7488 in time of need.

The hours of operation for HOTLINE are from 8 until midnight, seven days a week. There is an extensive reference list for referrals in case the listener is unable to be of assistance.

The goal of Miami Hotline is to establish a "Growing" communication channel for troubled and lonely people. Please be encouraged to volunteer.

BERRY EXCITED AS NEW SEASON NEARS WITH GOOD OUTLOOK

By James Ellis

Facing is a new era for Missouri football. The Missouri coaching staff is excited about the upcoming season. As well as his responsibilities, Berry, head coach of the Missouri football team, has also assumed new responsibilities. Before the season begins, the coaching staff will meet with the players to discuss their roles and responsibilities on the team.

EXCITING OUTLOOK FOR '72

By Joe Jones

The Missouri football team is looking forward to an exciting season in 1972. The team has a strong defense and a solid offense, with the potential to compete for the national championship. The team's bye week will provide an opportunity for players to rest and recover, allowing them to come back stronger for the remaining games.
