Norstar Competition Initiates Better Performance

Spectators at the Sept. 15 football game may have noticed that many Norse Stars were performing as bad as in previous halftimes.

Carter Conover, Norse Star director, explained that 45 girls have been practicing only 20 minutes each week. The routines chosen for this year are "harder" and require more skill.

"We want to have a certain number performing every week," explained Mr. Conover. "We feel quality is much more important than quantity. We want the girls on the field to be the ones who can execute the routine most perfectly."

Sue Neely pointed out the way the boys perform each week, he is very critical of second-year Norse Stars and myself.

"Girls with the highest number of practices are in the lineup for that work. The try-outs each week adds pressure and competitive-ness. This way the girls try hard-er and perform better."

The defense rest... After turning the pigskin over to the Golden Norse offense, Coach Rabie Berry's staunch defense takes a breather during the 48-0 romp over Eastern Arizona Gila Monster in Robertson field.

Golden Norse Avenge Gila Monsters, 48-0
Super effort by every player produced a 48 victory for the Golden Norse over Eastern Arizona Sept. 15 in Robertson field. Averaging last year's only loss to the Blue and Gold scored two quick TD's in the first quarter against the out-numbered Gila Monsters. Coach Rabie Berry's Norsemen ran their season record to 3-0 before since 1936 fans who received approval of the outstanding effort by the Norsemen. Records were altered by both offense and defense as the Norse stopped the Monsters time and again to record another shutdown. Norse defenders picked off five Gila passes and recovered three fumbles, while Norse offensive stars had no turnovers. Scoring was led by quarterback Roger Gregory who scored three times, the last of a 77 yard run following a fake field goal. Starting signaling duties was Doug Plunkett who put the Norse on the scoreboard first with a seven yard pass to Les Whitsel. Later Plunkett hit Ron Menghe, for 36 yards and touchdown, then ran the score to 14-0 in the first quarter to David Cheves in the final quarter. Other scoring was by tailback James Williams on a two-yard plunge and six extra points by Cheves.

Tough Schedule Ahead For Norse
Following tomorrow's grid contest with Indian Hills junior college here, the Golden Norse of coach Rabie Berry will have only a couple of games in the friendly confines of Robertson field. An Oct. 13 tilt will feature Tulsa University freshman as the compass play host to area high schoolers. Homecoming should provide incentive for the Blue and Gold on Oct. 3 against Ellsworth junior college. Road games will be against Western Texas State Oct. 6 and Cowley County College on Oct. 30 and the season finale on Nov. 3 at Fort Scott, Kan.
