Honors Banquet Scheduled For NEO Students

Students making the President’s Honor Roll and the Dean’s Honor Roll will be honored at a special banquet to be held Monday, February 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom.

Speakers for this year’s Honor Banquet are Larry Keen, Mid-Management instructor, and S.A. “Red” Robertson, Dean of Men and the Director of Financial Aids.

The program will consist of an invocation by Vernon Young, a welcome by Dr. D.D. Creeth, and a musical selection by the Mid-Morningers.

Honor students wishing to bring a guest to the banquet, should make reservations with Elizabeth Winstead, no later than Friday, Feb. 1. Charge will be $2 per guest. Phone 154-441, Ext. 271 or visit the President’s office for reservations.

Livestock Judges Reclaim Top Honors

Livestock judges returned home Jan. 15 from the National Contest at Denver, Colorado, held Jan. 12. They captured top honors out of a field of 30 teams.

Leading the team to its seventh consecutive win was Lyle Nutt, a freshman from Jay, who was high individual in the judging, by compiling 811 points out of a possible 1000. For each Jay Douglas the first place finish was his fifth since joining the college faculty. NEO has never been defeated at this contest.

Team totals in the show were NEO with 482 overall to Murray State College of Tahlequah’s 471; University of Minnesota’s 471; Lamar Jr. College 411 and Colby Jr. College’s 412 points.

NEO took first places in beef cattle, swine and sheep judging, finishing second with 84 to Lamar Jr. College’s 86 in the quarter horse division.

Woods had high individual in quarter horses and fourth in beef cattle. Other NEO high individual honors went to Dean Cunningham of Locust Grove in beef cattle and swine, and James Gates of Sapulpa in swine. Darcy Applegate of Sapulpa ranked fourth in quarter horses.

In individual rankings Cunningham placed fourth with 89 points. Darcy Fralick of Bristow and Dany Applegate both with 89

Norse Vanquish Cavaliers 91-87 In Bi-State Race

A 14-point victory by the Golden Norsemen over the Cavaliers of St. Gregory's College from Shawnee marked the most important game of the season for the Norsemen. The game broke the tie for first place in the Bi-State Conference.

NED's regular season ended Wednesday night with a 91-87 win over the Cavaliers at Shawnee.

Both teams were in the running for the championship of the Bi-State Conference, and the game was a battle of the top teams in the league.

The Norsemen were led by senior guard Steve Green, who scored 21 points, and junior forward Bob Williams, who added 18 points. For the Cavaliers, senior guard Tim Allen scored 24 points, and sophomore forward John Smith added 18 points.

The Norsemen have now won three straight games and are in a three-way tie for the first place in the Bi-State Conference.

The Norsemen won the championship of the Bi-State Conference last year and are hoping to repeat that success this season.
