Senate Plans Spring Events
According to Cy Jennings, visiting newly elected Student Senate president, many plans are being made for spring semester activities. They include more dances after ball games if bands can be found, a Valentine's Day dance, the Annual Talent Show, and various other activities. Cy stated, "My main goal as president is to show the people who voted against me that I can do the job well and try my best to get things changed that have needed it in the past." The thing he feels needs changed is the Constitution concerning campaign and requirements for holding Student Senate offices. He hopes to make revisions and also initiate a program to seek out a new way of punishment besides probation that will be equally effective.

Senate meets every Tuesday night at 8:30 p.m.

Blue And Gold Shoot Down Eagles 103-90

The Golden Norsemen's 103-90 victory over Oklahoma City Southwesters, Jan. 21, put the Blue and Gold in second place in the Bi-State Conference basketball race and dropped the Eagles from second to third.

NED scored 51 for all games and 51 in the conference race.

Bob Williams set the pace for a Norse victory with 33 points on 13 field goals and five free throws. No one had rebounded with 13.

Other top scorers include Leon Arod, 18; Steve Washington, 15; Gene Strahan, 11 and Steve Green, 10.

Scoring a quick opening lead on Green's field goal, the Norsemen led all the way. The first half ended with 15 points, 15 points on 25.17 and 25.10 scores, the latter with 15.10 until the half.

The biggest scoring gap at 15 points was on a 15-15 score with 19 minutes left. At that point, the Norsemen narrowed the gap to four points 15-15 and 15-10 left in the game.

The Norsemen continued to lead off, NED four points ahead by 13 points 15-15 and 15-10 in the second half. Mike Conner, the Norsemen's leading scorer in the conference, scored 10 points and Randy Bantsham's pair of free throws capped the victory.

Trojans Topple Norsemen 95-90

NED saw its undefeated streak fail as the hands of Seminole, 95-90, in double overtime.

The victory put the Trojans, leading the conference, to the league's lead at 14-2. NED, which defeated No. 12 Hutchinson, Kan., 94-92, Jan. 21, fell to 2-7 in conference play.

The Norsemen were leading the game 9-9 and 9-9, but the Norsemen fell behind 55-56 and 55-56 in overtime.

Golden Norsemen Extinguish Dragons

Protecting their perfect 17-0 record, the Blue and Gold toppled the Blue Dragons of Hutchinson, Kan., 74-66, in an exciting battle at the NED Fieldhouse, Jan. 21.

Playing to a capacity crowd, the Norsemen's riders scored 25 points in the first quarter.

Steve Washington and Bob Johnson each scored 15 points, and Bob Williams added 10 points.

Steve Green and Leon Arod were the Norsemen's leading scorers.

The Norsemen dominated the game, leading 25-9 in the first quarter and 52-20 at halftime.

Hutchinson came within a point of cutting up the Norsemen in the second quarter, but the Norsemen closed the game with a 46-46 score in the first half.

Green's big score was 15-15 in the second half, and the Norsemen took the game to overtime with a 95-90 score.

Outstanding Spring Season Predicts Coach

Coach Bob Maxwell's Golden Norse basketball team is slated to open the 1976 season at home against CMU Thursday, March 21 at 1 p.m.

Maxwell feels, "NED's basketball club should have one of the most outstanding years in history if depending upon the starting picture for the '74 season."

NED also announced the sophomore candidates for the baseball lineup. They include: Brad Cannon, first baseman; John Cook, center fielder; Roger Bing, first baseman; and Steve Williams, pitcher.

Quickly closing the gap to the Blue and Gold, the Golden Norsemen will open the season on the road against the College of Southern Idaho Thursday, March 21. The Norsemen will host the Idaho State University Friday, March 22.

NEO Scratches

Penn Valley 60-50

In one of the lowest scoring games of the season, NEO came from behind in the last half and defeated Penn Valley College, 60-50, Jan. 20, in Kansas City.

Coach Cline Green's Norsemen carried an 18-1 January record into Thursday night, Jan. 20, in Kansas City and defeated Western University of Oklahoma City, 60-50. The Norsemen held Penn Valley to 35-30 in the second half.

NEO's game with Penn Valley was delayed for 15 minutes after NEO's press conference, but they prevailed for the 60-50 victory.

Norsemen won in the 35-30, and increased the margin to 35-30 early in the second half.

Quickly closing the gap to the Blue and Gold, the Norsemen will open the season on the road against the College of Southern Idaho Thursday, March 21. The Norsemen will host the Idaho State University Friday, March 22.
