Baseball Team Opener Against Westark Today

The baseball team will open the season today at 1 p.m. against Westark, here.

The season was originally scheduled to start March 21, but was held over due to the flood over spring break. The weather has caused the team to fall behind in workouts.

Coach Bob Wannall has not cut the team down as yet. He plans to cut up 12 boys for the opener against Westark.

All baseball prospects returned from spring break, four days early to find rain and a flooded field. Workouts consisted of conditioning and throwing in the gym. Westark and other teams found themselves in the same situation and will probably not hold any edge in that respect.
