Lot One Now
An Orderly Spot

Have you noticed Lot One lately?

Well, if you haven't, your eyes need examined. What was once a free-for-all of tangled coils is now an orderly parking lot. What was once a breeding ground for students whose cars were slammed in for hours now is a parking lot with easy access to the and cute. What was once a ground for the NEO campus, its cars as well as a place for staging teachers, is now a show of progress.

Why the sudden change for the better in Lot One? After many hours of pondering the problem, Dr. Charles Angle, Dean of Instruction, along with other administrative officials, reached a simple solution to the Lot One problem.

With the use of parking designations, double rows of parking spaces were established, as well as clearly marked lines where no parking is allowed. This assures everyone parking in Lot One that their car will not be blocked in by other cars.

While it is true that there is still a parking overflow problem on campus, this straightening out of Lot One is a decisive step in the right direction.

Now, instead of driving into a jungle of notes, the committer may enter an orderly parking lot and find a parking space almost every time.

To the administration, we say, "A job well done."

End of the Neo—During the Neo's "Hell Week" often ended in confusion and turmoil for both the freshmen and sophomores.

NEO "Hell Week"

"Hell Week" on the NEO campus continued until the 1981-1982 term that the freshmen class finished the wishes of the sophomore class.

During the first day of "Hell Week" freshmen boys were required to roll up their pant legs and have their hair cut short. A 30 day period saw new students being issued into a track filled with mud and water.

On the second day, all freshmen were required to wear their clothing outside. A tug-of-war then took place between freshmen boys and sophomores boys. The freshmen were the battles, in 10, thus winning the right to shed the wearing of the traditional green beanies.

The first annual "Neon or Never Week" took place in 1966 as an enrollment test to over 1200. During "Neon or Never Week", the table turned on unsuspecting male students as girls asked them for dates and kissed the hill. This was definitely a first on the NEO campus.

A total enrollment of 1,307 students was reached during 1966. This total was an increase of 18% over the previous year.

Error Sighted
By NEO Official

I am writing with reference to your article "Payment for Accidents" as it appeared in the Nurse and published September 30, 1980. Specifically, I was quite surprised when I read the statements regarding the automatic payment of $15 for a parking permit, car or car not. I wasn't aware that if you had written, I was surprised at your lack of journalism.

There is no college regulation or policy that requires the payment of an automatic parking fee if you don't plan to park on the campus. Whether you drive or walk, whether you own a car or not, only those who plan to park a car on the campus are required to pay a parking fee. If the individual fails to obtain a parking permit and parks on the campus the parking ticket accumulated will not cost the individual more than a parking permit. No one is required to pay for a parking permit unless they park on the campus.

A few students completed the parking permit card while enrollment for the fall semester that shouldn't be. In every known instance where this has happened a refund has been made. This was determined by a thorough investigation of the situation. In addition, I don't feel the above mentioned editorial was in keeping with the policy of the Nurse and the policy I refer to is "All copy must be signed." I don't know who wrote the editorial, but, I'm sure it wasn't the Nurse-Winde staff. What is good for the goose should be good for the gander. Let us all sign our work in the future.

R.B. Luster
This is the fifth time she's been among us. I think I've got a streak going. Past Central students never seemed to have the same sort of situation that I have. I have a question-and-answer section with my column. It's not real easy, but it's enough for me to do. You know, if you do that and there are three or four questions, it's fun to write. It's not too bad if you do it once a week. We've been doing it for a year and a half, and the letters are beginning to come in. It's been fun, and I hope they're not too bad.

Late Wrangler Touchdown Buries Norse By Three

Randy Starkes eight-yard touchdown pass to Eugene Johnson with 1:15 left in the game, capped Northwestern A&M's disappointing homecoming victory, 28-21, before a large, storm-drenched crowd.

Chico took the opening kickoff and ran for yardage, turning the ball over on downs as the Norse in the final minute of the first quarter. A big man from center nailed over the middle of the line, for a 14-yard loss to NDU's 3. Five plays later quarter back Gary Reiser ran one yard over the left side in more with 1:36 left in the first quarter. Norse had the game a few moments later as Wills Bruderhauer rolled 16 yards for the score.

The Norse went to work early in the second quarter, as quarterback Steve Miller passed for 39 yards to Paul Bollina for a touchdown and Dr. Ray Miller, Vanderbilt averaged the two in a two-yard run to the 2-yard line. On the ensuing kick-off, Norse missed the block and hit safe, but Wills Bruderhauer hit 100 yards for an apparent touchdown. Norse was called for clipping penalty. A Norse turn over on their own 40 gave the Wranglers a golden opportunity. Four plays later, Reiser passed 10 yards to Burke, and David Helmer scored the two points, and Norse a 3-0 halftime tie.

Halfback statistic showed Norse on top with 96 yards to NDU's 16. Norse had leading runner for Norse with 8 yards in nine carries, and Bruderhauer had 108 yards on five carries for NDU. Burke was 10 for 13 for 10 yards in passing, but Norseman quarterback Miller was 6 for 12 for 44 yards. Norse had four turnovers and lost three, of which led to Chico touchdowns, and Norse one fumble.

Three quarter action showed limited scoring as neither team had a successful drive. With 1:27 left in the game, NDU had a 6-yard drive, and gave Norse an 18-15 lead.

Cornerback Jim Adams fumbled a punt on NDU's 41 yard line with 1:15 left in the game and the Norse had a field goal by Burke. A big man from quarter back Miller stopped in front of a Norseman to pass in Norse on three and two to return to the 23. A bad pass from Quarterback Bill Crandall to Chico gave Norse the ball in Norse territory on the 13. Reserve Quarterback Randy Starkes tossed an eight-yard pass to Eugene Johnson for a Wrangler touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good and Norse a 25-18.

Norse last drive was killed when Sherman Taylor intercepted a James Kelly pass on Chico's 42 yard line with 11 seconds left. Final State for Norse were: 17 first downs, 309 yards rushing, 50 rushing yards, 14 of 29 passing, with two interceptions, two fumbles lost, and 13 penalties for 77 yards. For Norse: 31 first downs, 309 rushing yards, 14 of 29 passing, seven fumbles lost, five, and three penalties for 34 yards. Individual leaders: Burke, Norseman, 16 carries for 133 yards and Doug Moore, 10 carries for 44 yards. Passing: Burke, 10 for 17 with 173 yards and one TD; Starkes, 1 for 3 for 18 yards and one TD.

For NDU: running: Reiser, 18 carries for 16 yards; and John Bogal, 11 carries for 56 yards. Passing: Miller, 13 of 27 for 124 yards; and Kelly, 1 of 5 for 8 yards.

Norseman Auty Makes Foes Wonder

Offensive linemen are generally the forgotten men in a football team, but Northwestern A&M college athletic manager Gary Auty has left his im

AUTY, 24, creates his own ways of the Football Bum. First, he's the Eight, and his seven versus 6 in football and one on the gridiron in earning All-Conference honors in both sports. He was selected "Outstanding Offensive Lineman" for his senior year. Last season as a freshman at Norse, Auty did a lot of pulling from the guard position. "We haven't had Gary pulling this year because we have lost several linemen instead of slides like last year," rated Kyle Barry, Norseman head coach. "Gary has had no problem blocking the linebacker and in an excellent pass blocker," commented Barry.

Auty comes to Northwestern A&M preparing to play defense instead of offense. "In high school I played guard on offense and tackle on defense and I would really enjoy playing defense sometimes," Auty explained. Playing at a slim 220 pounds as a freshman, Auty reported to the Norse this fall weighing a changing 215 pounds. "I am in a little better over practice and my entire team pushed hard from running tables and ball weight," said Barry. "He isn't really getting much more, and getting around the 215 is about 220 weigh." Auty's extreme dedication and hard work weighed Auty being selected "Outstanding Lineman" for his play against Kansas. "He is the most consistent blocker we have and the load of weight has been an asset to him because he has continued to get a better and better," Barry stated. "Gary has a very good shot at All-American this year." commented Barry. "I haven't had any serious injuries this year, only the regular bruise you experience at my particular position," explained Auty. "My biggest problem this season is that I haven't been keeping my feet moving, but with the weight loss I feel lighter and my speed and agility is coming around." Auty concluded.

As a sophomore majoring in political science, Auty hopes to continue his football career at a major college or university. "We have had a lot of contacts from other schools about Auty," noted Kyle Barry. "He carries a good attitude with him both in the classroom and on the field." "Gary has set his goals in life and knows what he is going to do," concluded Barry.

NORSE Entertain TU Junior Varsity

By Steve Rizzard

The Norsemen will host the TU Junior Varsity team, which has recently returned from a successful trip to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) tournament, this Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

The Norsemen, who are ranked 21st in the nation, will play a team that is ranked 13th. The Norsemen have won 14 of their last 15 games, while the TU team has only one loss in its last 20 games.

The Junior Varsity team consists of players who are not yet eligible for the varsity team. The Norsemen hope to use this game to give some of their younger players valuable experience.

Time Out

By Steve Rizzard

The National Junior College Athletic Association is trying to revise the rules to make the junior college national championship a more meaningful event.

Because of financial reasons, junior colleges are limited in the number of players and the amount of money they can spend on their programs. Many colleges are unable to continue their programs because of the financial constraints.

A proposal has been made to allow students to play in the NJCAA tournament, but only if they are eligible for the varsity team at their respective institutions.

The proposal would also increase the number of games that could be played during the season. This would allow more teams to participate and increase interest in the sport.

The proposal would also expand the number of teams that could participate in the tournament. This would allow more teams to compete and increase the level of competition.

The Norsemen receiving corps should consist of Thomas Jones, 54-58, at tailback; C. S. Baker, 54-58, at fullback; and Dave Sease, 54-57, at quarterback.

On defense, Mike Hines, 61-61, and Ray Andrus, 61-61, will occupy the tackle positions, while D. H. Jones, 64-64, and Jimxcomer, 64-64, will substitute at defensive ends.

At linebacker will be James Phillips, 63-63, and Horace Cowan, 63-63, at fullback.
