Voting Light

For Elections

Class officers for both the sophomore and freshman classes were elected recently at Northeastern A&M, with a light turn-out of students at the ballot box.

Eugene "Skip" Cruse, Midwest City, was elected president of the sophomore class for the 1975-76 term, defeating Cynthia Wynn, Tulsa. In a run-off election held Sept. 9, Cruse and his wife Kent are currently residing in the Tisdell dorms.

David Wadlow was elected senior vice-president and Cynthia Holman was elected secretary-treasurer. Both Wadlow and Mike Holman are from Pryor. Bob Ray, Stillwater, and Lynne Averill, Bartlesville, were chosen as student senate representatives.

Tim Davis, Sand Springs, was elected freshman class president. Natalie Rubenstein, Tulsa, was elected freshman vice-president. Other officers are: Debbie Foreman, Pryor, treasurer; Donna Aukley, Tulsa, secretary; Anita Scheninger, Tulsa, student senate representative; and Rob Simms, Grove, student senate representative.

With a total enrollment of over 1,800 students, voting turn-outs were relatively low. Only 194 sophomores and 176 freshmen voted in the first election, held Sept. 1. The number of voting students plummeted to 71 sophomores and 123 freshmen during the runoff election.

"I was very disappointed with the turnout for the elections," commented Tim Davis, the newly elected freshman president. "I think it shows the native-spiele type we are coming from. Skip Cruse shared Davis' sentiment. "I talked to a sophomore last year," commented Cruse, "and he said what I do I can't win in the Senate anyway."

"Sophomores don't think that their vote will do any good, because they are in the minority," Cruse explained. "Also a great deal of cynicism has resulted from Watergate and other things like the Edmundson-Bellamy race. We hear how things are supposed to be, but we can see that they really aren't that way."

"I don't really think that there was enough time for the campaign, especially for the freshmen. The sophomores were here last year, so they probably knew who they were going to vote for, but the freshmen are just getting here, and really don't know each other yet." Cruse stated.

Both class presidents expressed dismay at the low attendance of students at the assembly for campaign speeches.

"There were only about 15-18 people at the assembly," Cruse said, "I had a real good speech prepared," said Davis, "but there wasn't very many who showed up to hear it."

fee Payments
Are Not Fair

General fees at Northeastern A&M include an automatic payment of $15 for a parking permit, car or car pool. While it is true that most students who live on campus do own cars, there may be an occasional commuter who does not even drive. And there are plenty of commuters who don’t park on campus. Should these people be required to pay for a parking permit they won’t even use?

A common complaint to the many on the parking permit is that of the required permit for either Fray’s (a $30 monthly fee) or Parking (a $32 monthly fee). While students don’t pay for a parking permit, they may not be allowed to park in the student lots. This is especially true for the freshmen who are required to park in the student lots. Those who do not park in the student lots may be required to purchase the required fee for a parking permit.

The student body has a right to know if this is the truth.

Vann Parking

I have a major complaint about the parking in Vann Hall. I had to wait the other day and I waited 2 hours and 15 minutes. When I asked how the other drivers got there, they said they didn’t know. I was tired and I didn’t want to walk back. I have a major complaint about the parking in Vann Hall. I had to wait the other day and I waited 2 hours and 15 minutes. Track Squad Establishes Fall Meets

Running six freshmen, Norsemen's AAM's cross country team started practice last week for a season meet scheduled in the fall.

The Norse squad is led by four of the freshmen, B.K. Custer, 6-4, 270 lbs, and Don Peterson, 6-1, 210 lbs, Mark Smith, 6-1 1/2, 220 lbs, and Jack Condrick, 6-1 1/2, 180 lbs, at the guard, E. McDougall, 6-0, 190 lbs, at center, and S. Ray, 6-1 1/2, at fullback.

The Norse squad will be challenged by the Oklahoma Christian College meet in Edward, as well as other teams.

Recent controversy has centered around the press and issue of the NCAA trying to ban the Jockey Park conference in Kansas. The Norse could be involved, among other things, the distance from home to the conference.

With the rivalry at Coffeyville, Fort Scott, and Independence on the schedule, the Norsemen are looking forward to the matchup with Coffeyville this week.

If the Norsemen are to defeat the Coffeyville, it will be on the strength of the defensive line, which has been consistently strong throughout the season.

The Norsemen are currently 4-0 in the conference and are looking for a fifth victory when they meet Coffeyville this week.
