Seeking Re-election: Risenghoover Campaigns

Talking with people at various Republican Party, Ted Risenghoover, democratic campaign for the second district, spoke to about 20 to 25 students, instructors, and administrators in the Norse Campus Mirror, Tus.

Risenghoover said he felt like the election was going well. The campaign is doing better than expected. This is the first time Risenghoover has run for the election.

Risenghoover said he is against the transfer of state funds to Oklahoma for irrigation purposes. "Those people working for this are not for the benefit of the middle class or the working class," he said.

The central campaign is trying to discourage the transfer of the funds to Oklahoma. To achieve this goal, "We will be holding a rally in downtown Oklahoma City," he said.

Risenghoover also added that the "race is not over yet," and the campaign is working hard to get the vote out.

Letters

Student View

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter because I feel very strongly about the lack of transportation on this campus. There are many students who live in off-campus housing and need to get to their classes on time. The bus system that we have currently is not sufficient to meet the needs of all the students.

Sincerely,

Dorm Policy

Dear Editor:

I have noticed a decrease in the amount of noise in the dorms recently. This is a positive change that I hope will continue. However, I have also noticed that some students are not following the dorm policy.

Please let me know if you have any comments or suggestions on this issue.

Sincerely,

Campus Body Not to Blame for Spirit Apathy

Dear Editor:

I was surprised to read the article in last week's issue about the decline in campus spirit. I believe that the administration is not to blame for this problem. There are many factors that contribute to this issue, including the busy schedules of students and the lack of opportunities for students to get involved.

Sincerely,

Booster Club Seeks Spirit

Dear Editor:

I would like to say a few things about the Booster Club. Our team has been working hard to improve the spirit of the school. We have organized several events and activities to promote school spirit.

Class Cuts

Dear Editor:

I would like to thank the administration for considering the cuts to our classes. I believe that this is a necessary step to ensure the survival of our school.

Box Codes

Dear Editor:

I would like to address the issue of box codes on campus. The current system is not working effectively. I believe that we need a more efficient system to distribute the box codes.

Dear Editor:

I was disappointed to see the news about the Norwegian Cheerleaders. It is unfortunate that they are facing financial difficulties.

Voters Decide Proposals

Dear Editor:

The election results are in, and the voters have decided on several proposals. Some of the proposals were popular among the students, while others were not.

Miller Leading Receiver

By CHRIS FLETCHER

I was allowed to play by ear," explained Newman's end Jack Miller from Ft. Worth, Texas. "If you couldn't catch, they wouldn't let you play," continued Miller.

Miller, a sophomore out of Carter Riverside High School, signed a ten-year letter of intent with Texas A&M but later decided to come to NRO. Texas A&M didn't throw enough. NRO threw a lot more, continued Miller.

While at Carter Riverside, Miller played tight end under Routland Macklin and was selected All Tarrant County and Honorable Mention in the state.

Student Smith
Future Lawyer Person

By KARLIE MABERS
Staff Reporter

Pan Morris, freshman in Northwestern A&M majoring in Criminal Justice, plan to be our next "Police Woman." Pan's home town is Adam, where she is very active in auxiliary police volunteer work. She is currently taking a hundred and twenty hour police course provided by the Adam Police Department. The course is held at the City Hall of Adam and meets every Thursday. The course qualifies Pan as a Reserve Law Officer, helping back up Adam Police whenever needed, such as an overload of situations of emergencies.

Pan also spends time on the firing range. Her scoring average on the range is 78 to 99, a good average score. Pan has already received a bit place trophy for the women's division.

Pan is mainly studying mechanics areas, fire law and report writing.

"Identity" Taking Art

Asking poets, artists and photographers will be an opportunity to see their creative efforts in print. Original writings and artistic endeavors with both text and camera will be published in the paper's publication of identity, a copyrighted anthology, dedicated to the personality of the individual and of the campus community as a whole.

The identity staff is made up of 15 members, and is supervised by Richard Sick, assistant professor. Identity is expected to be submitted to the public the first week in April following a February 26 deadline. The approximate cost will be $1.00.
