Education bill vote confusing

There are probably under a lot of stress these days, the day is approaching quickly Oct. 15, when they will repeal or pass House Bill 271.

Last year the bill was passed to improve education here in Oklahoma, it provided smaller classrooms, curricular improvement, higher teacher salaries and a lot of more important in our education system.

Teachers worked hard last year striving to make things better for students and themselves. They were forced to go on strike in the cold weather so they could get together to make a difference in the educational system.

There is an organization called STOP stop using our people. This is pushing for the state to repeal the HB7 bill.

Editorial

The estimated cost of this bill is $2 million and it will be raised by increase of state sales and property taxes.

Thus, the bill will cost Oklahoma a lot of money but it will help the education system.

People are so concerned about this situation this bill will help improve education and our taxes.

The result of a repeal of the bill will probably do a lot of damage to the Oklahoma school system.

Oklahoma will make history because this will cause traumatic results and effect every teacher, public school, colleges and tax payers.

The schools will probably run on funds that they think they have but in general do not.

This does not only effect elementary school but junior high, high school and colleges as well.

Dramatic cuts will take up the school system if the bill is repealed and there will be lot of problems caused without a solution.

How would that happen with giving teachers raises? After all if it was not for teachers there would be no doctors, lawyers or so important to the education system.

Teachers are very important and schools play a very important part in your development. If there were no schools then the educational will be lost just like the uneducated.

On Oct. 15, please vote and make a difference. You may think that your vote does not mean very much but you are wrong, it means a lot because who will really pay is you, the children, teachers, schools and etc. So don’t be the wrong choice. Vote NO, which really means keep the reform bill.

Variety should be the spice of life within the cafeteria

You are on your way to supper thinking how hungry you are becoming. It is not surprising when you get there and discover that once again you are eating chicken. I can’t count on my fingers alone how many times per week we have to eat chicken. It seems to be a really a drag when you are expecting decent food.

The main reason why the cafeteria serves chicken all the time is due to the fact that they are pressed for time. So, since chicken is easy to fix we have it all the time.

It would be nice for a change to have a variety of foods. But occasionally the cafeteria fixes.

Frankly, we’re all tired of eating the same old things.

Back again, how difficult and time consuming is it when you’re cooking meals a day, six days a week for more than 1800 people.

Couldn’t we have ethnic foods, every now and then to provide a little variety?

Editor’s Note: The following columns are entitled NWA for a reason. The N stands for Norse which is a Viking Goddess. So our Norse has an attitude and readers can expect to have a visit from this heavenly being every two weeks in The Norse Wind.

Gossip

Yes, we all are in on it. We all talk about it... IT’S EVERYWHERE!

And I thought that we all quit that nonsense when we all graduated.

Obviously not. It’s hard to lead a normal campus life when these vicious lies are being spread.

You can not play dumb if you claim you had no idea that these rumors were circulating.

Every single person, club and sport are even as we speak being talked about all sorts of horror ways.

Because of these rumors it is causing loss of people to get into fights.

My GOD people, grow up! I should think that by now that we are all MATURE adults. Is it just too much for us?

Sure it is alright to talk about other people, but isn’t when it’s you being talked about. I’m sure we can all speak from experience when I say that’s bad when the rumors are about you. You’re not going to end any of this foolishness by just standing around. You can make a difference if you try.

First of all, we should stop circulatating these vicious rumors. Bright idea stop making things up. After all, it’s obvious that these rumors generate:

Cleaning dorms a real problem

Crash!!! Something just dropped in the hallway. You look down and you see a broken bottle in the hallway. There isn’t any way your roommate can clean it up.

Being the good Samaritan you are you report it to the custodial. Then you come back from your fun filled weekend and find that the bottle remains uncleaned.

You remember distinctly reporting it, so what happened?

Some reason things just aren’t getting cleaned up around here. Why?

It seems that there is shortage of help on the weekends. For the people in the dorms, it is frustrating when an accident occurs.

There is any way that we could have some extra help. It is asking too much.

By having people on the floor during weekends we can eliminate many spills, and accidents.

Music man brings laughter to job

By Emily McManaway

Byron Tapp was hard to get even a few words out of the corner of the new music instructor. Ruben Beloya even found a remark to make about the "good way" to say his name.

"It's Ruben. Ray in the sun ray and then as in two all beef patties, special order sauce with lettuce, tomatoes and all the fixins." Beloya has a bachelor's degree in education and his career has been in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

"I know this is a small group but I enjoy being part of a program that's being built, growing and has seen down times in the past."

Beloya mentions, "What I really want to do here is go out and tour in the areas where students are most likely to come from and get to know them."

We might be a small group now但如果 we travel the state area and get a good radius of schools around, maybe (hope?) next year we won't be such a small group.

Beloya and his wife, Karen, moved here from Henry, OK. They dragged their daughter Carin and their cat Happy right along with them.

"Oh you Beloya added: "Play golf, and collect record albums and comic books."

Beloya says he has moved around and is now at it just how travel is for him.

"Where there's trouble, I'll be there, it's a country side thing."

After "hanging" in his office, it seemed to me that his office was the country side.

Beloya lives in and out playing music and mostly just having a great time. Everyone loves BBAYON MAN (that's what everyone called him while I was there). It definitely didn't seem like I was doing an interview, it seemed more like every time.

"When I went to the game in Dallas afterwards I learned in 2 steps. Now I'm the king. Next time around, I'll play the headliner."

He's a favorite assistant band director. I wish that he had taken a little green in the face while he was saying it! Lori Sanders added a remark.

"He's the best, we're all Bonham."

I just wanted us to slip one guy only. It's a room number. Sorry guys you'll have to find her on your own.

"Byron has made sure that we and Eddie Mobley were invited to our own,"笑着

"No one realizes that Ed and I are Swansons twins separated at birth. I received an expensive education and possess power which I use only for good." Ed on the other hand was rumored to be a cranky thin side show.

He can pick up needles with his eyelids, read minds.

There is still time to join the band. Come by Copen 707.

"It's all fun and games until someone loses an eye" cracked Beloya.

Assistant available

Over 12 million people annually in the United States continue their education after high school. The number of students enrolled in post-secondary schools exceeds many other nations by less than two times.

The federal government helps students further their education with financial assistance. The two most common forms of aid are grants, such as the Pell Grant and loans, like the GES-Guaranteed Loan. Programs are set up to help those who would be otherwise unable to attend because of financial difficulty.

"No person should fail to apply for aid," said Dr. E. E. Frank, director of financial aid.

The Pell Grant does not have to be repaid and is based on financial need.

The Stafford Loan, better known as the GSL, allows money to be borrowed for educational purposes through a bank or credit union.

The federal government controls the interest rate on the loan while the student attends school. Payment is due until a short time after the student leaves school. Financial need must be proven to receive this form of aid.

Federal aid is still available in the form of a GM or a Pell Grant. Most study is no longer available. Students can apply for aid up to six weeks before the end of the semester, but it's best to apply early, just said.

"By the way you apply for aid, the more likely you'll be to get what you need."

Both Pell Grants and GSL forms are still available in the form of a loan and can be obtained through the local library and the Administration Building.

Help is available completing these forms. The office hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Fridays.

Apaches attack Robertson Field

Tyler seeks to destroy homecoming of Norsemen

By Jennifer Burke

After opening the season with three grueling games on the road, the Golden Norsemen return home to Robertson Field on Saturday to face Tyler Junior College for a traditional homecoming game. A crowd of more than 300 fans is expected to attend the 7 p.m. event at Robertson Field. The Norsemen are off on a three-game winning streak that dates back to the 2007 season.

The last loss at Robertson Field was a 10-7 decision to Trinity Valley during the 2004 season.

Lamar Smith (5-0, 200) will get the nod at tailback. Smith leads the Norse ground game with 339 yards on 67 carries and one touchdown for the season. In the season opener, Smith rushed for 148 yards on 13 carries and a touchdown.

Billy Williams (5-10, 190) will start at wide receiver while Larry (6-4, 180) will get the starting spot at flanker.

Williams should be a key player against the Golden Norsemen defense. He currently has 10 receptions for 118 yards and two touchdowns through six games.

The Golden Norse defense will start Morgan Seabold (5-10, 235) and Vallery Berggren (6-0, 280) at the defensive ends, with Corny Grant (6-3, 230) and Tim Foster (6-3, 250) at the defensive tackle positions.

The Norse linebacker corps will feature Charlie Dameron (6-2, 222), Tim Foster (6-1, 205) at inside linebacker, with Brian Hambright (6-1, 205) and Danny Leatherman (6-1, 225) at the outside positions.

The Norse defense will be directed by quarterback Anthony Taylor (5-11, 165) and Jordan Brown (6-2, 200), with Jordan Brown (6-2, 195) at the center position.

Playing at the safeties will be Kerri Hughes (6-0, 185) and Zachary Osmond (5-11, 205). The Norse defense will be directed by quarterback Anthony Taylor (5-11, 165) and Jordan Brown (6-2, 200), with Jordan Brown (6-2, 195) at the center position.

"We're going to have a balanced attack against the Golden Norsemen defense ," said Taylor. "We have to be better than they are, and we have to play better than we did last week.

"We have to get the ball into the hands of our running backs, and we have to take advantage of our wide receivers.

"We have to control the tempo of the game, and we have to be patient with our offense," said Taylor.

Tyler's defense will start Scott Blanks (5-11, 230) and Thomas Butler (5-11, 220) at the outside linebacker positions.

Off of all the defensive positions, the cornerback may be the most difficult to fill.

"The number of students participating has increased," said Jennifer Alexander, the sports director.

"Students are being encouraged to participate in the sport by their coaches and by the NJCAA," said Alexander.

The intramural program is divided into the following sports: basketball, soccer, volleyball, baseball, softball, tennis, and bowling.

"Each sport is open to anyone who wants to participate," said Alexander.

Alexander said that the Intramural Department is planning to hold a championship at the end of the season.

"The championship will be held in the gymnasium," said Alexander.
